Introduction

Who is this book for?

English Vocabulary in Use (pre-intermediate and intermediate) has been written to help learners at this level to improve their English. It has been designed for students who are studying on their own, but it can also be used by a teacher in the classroom with groups of students.

How is the book organised?

The book has 100 two-page units. The left-hand page explains new words and expressions (most units contain approximately 25 new words or phrases), and the right-hand page gives you a chance to check your understanding through a series of exercises which practise the new vocabulary. In a very limited number of units e.g. Units 18 and 71, the right-hand page also includes a few new words and phrases which are not explained on the left-hand page.

There is an answer key at the back of the book. This not only gives correct answers to exercises with 'right' or 'wrong' solutions, but also possible answers and sample answers for exercises which do not have 'right' or 'wrong' solutions.

There is also an index at the back of the book. This lists all the new words and phrases introduced in the book and refers you to the unit or units where these words appear. The index also includes a phonemic transcription for many of the words, and on page 247 you are given special help with the pronunciation of approximately 200 words which present particular problems for many learners of English.

This is the page that introduces the new vocabulary for each topic or area of language. First of all, the vocabulary is divided into a number of sections (A, B, C, etc.) with simple clear titles; and then within each section, new words are explained using a number of different techniques:

- A short definition. The definition follows directly after the word, or comes at the end of the phrase or sentence; it is in brackets and introduced by the symbol =.
e.g. unemployed (= without a job); feel like (= want or desire informal)
The abbreviations formal or informal tell you if a word is either 'formal' or 'informal'.
- A short explanation. This will be a complete sentence which often includes the new word, e.g. effective. (If something is effective, it works well and produces good results.)
- A synonym or opposite, e.g. terrific (= fantastic); dirty (≠ clean)
- In a situation. Some words are difficult to define and it is easier to see their meaning when they are put in context. The following is from a text about a motoring accident.
e.g. 'The driver of the Mercedes was OK, but the other driver was badly injured, and both cars were badly damaged.'
- A picture or diagram. This seems the obvious way to explain a large number of concrete nouns and verbs.

go along here and turn left.

For many of the new words there are also sentence examples which show the words in context in order to consolidate their meaning and illustrate any special syntactic features.

My boyfriend gets very jealous when I talk to other boys.

The plane appeared in the sky, then suddenly disappeared behind a cloud.

He admitted stealing the woman's money. (admit + -ing)

We were very busy but we managed to finish by 6 o'clock. (manage + inf.)

Finally, a big effort has been made to introduce new words alongside other words that often appear with them (this is called 'collocation').

e.g. miss the bus; a strong accent; the car broke down; it's vitally important; fasten your seat belt; go on holiday; give someone a hand; to a certain extent, a terrible pain, etc.

This page contains the exercises to practise the new vocabulary presented on the left-hand page. In general the first exercise practises the form of some of the new words, and then there are further exercises which focus on the meaning. In most units there is at least one exercise which gives learners a chance to think about and practise new vocabulary in relation to their own lives, and/or a task which invites learners to do something with the vocabulary outside of the book (e.g. 11.4, 14.4, etc.). And in every unit, there is a range of exercise types to help maintain your interest.

Using the book

The first five units (or first six units if you go to an English class) teach you some important vocabulary, but they also help you with useful ideas and techniques for vocabulary learning. Do these units first, and then work through the book studying the units which interest you.

Summary of abbreviations and symbols used in the book

n noun
v verb
adj adjective

informal informal word or expression formal formal word or expression pl word only used in the plural

(U) uncountable word
(C) countable word

≠ opposite

AmEng American English word or expression

I Learning and revising with this book

A Establish a routine

A routine means doing certain things regularly in the same way. And if you are using this book for self-study (= to study alone), it helps to have a routine. Decide how much time you can spend on the book each day or each week. If you are studying a unit for the first time, try to give yourself at least (= a minimum of) half an hour or forty-five minutes; if you are revising (= looking through a unit a second or third time), five or ten minutes each time is very useful. So, plan longer periods for new units, and shorter periods for revision.

B Working through the book

Do different things to maintain your interest. (= keep your interest high). For example:

- Don't work through the units in sequence (= in the order they appear in the book): look through the units and choose ones that interest you.
- When you do a unit, you can:
 - read the whole of the left-hand page, then do the exercises.
 - read part of the left-hand page, then do one or two exercises.
 - try the exercises first, then use the left-hand page when you have a problem.
- Be active when you are learning. For example:
 - While you are reading the left-hand page, use a highlighter pen to mark new or interesting vocabulary.
 - Practise saying the words silently in your head (= without a noise), and also out loud (= making a noise, so it is possible for others to hear), to see if you can pronounce them.
 - Put new words in your own notebook using some of the ideas from Unit 2 to do it effectively. (If something is effective, it works well and produces good results.)

C Revision

It is common to learn a word one day, then find you cannot remember it a day later. If you revise regularly (just for short periods), it helps you to remember words and make them part of your 'active' vocabulary. Here are some ideas for revising with this book.

- Do exercises in pencil. Check your answers when you have finished, then rub them out (= remove them using a rubber/eraser). Later, come back and do the exercises again, and just use the left-hand page if you cannot remember something.
- When you read a left-hand page for a second time, have a piece of card with you. When you reach a new word in bold which has a definition/explanation after it in brackets (), cover the definition quickly and try to say what it is. Then uncover it to see if you were right.
- Revise for short periods but do it often. Five minutes a day is probably better than half an hour a week; but half an hour a week is probably better than two hours a month.
- As with learning, be active when you revise. Look for different ways to revise: test yourself, create games for yourself; set goals/targets (= decide on things you want to be able to do by a particular time); decide when to work on something, e.g. meaning on Sunday, pronunciation on Monday, etc.

Exercises

1.1 Think about these questions. On the opposite page you will find some answers. Do you agree with them?

- 1 Is it better to plan regular self-study, or is it better just to study when you think you've got some free time?
- 2 Do you think you should work through the units in the same order as they appear in the book?
- 3 Do you think it's a good idea to write down new words in a notebook while you are studying a unit?
- 4 Is it necessary to revise vocabulary?
- 5 Is it better to revise vocabulary occasionally for long periods of time, or is it better to revise regularly for short periods of time?

1.2 Finding your way round the book.

Turn to the Topic units in the Contents on pages 1–3. Take a blank piece of paper and cover the right-hand side of the page giving the examples. Now read down the list of unit titles. For each one, try to write down your own examples – one or two for each unit. Are there any unit titles you don't understand? Are there any units where you can't think of examples? If so, turn to that unit and find out what it is about.

You could use similar titles in your own vocabulary notebook. (See Unit 2)

1.3 True or False? If the sentence is false, rewrite it to make it true. Write your answers in pencil.

- 1 In this book, new words are often shown in bold print.
- 2 Definitions/explanations of new words are often in brackets after the word.
- 3 A routine means doing certain things in a different way each time.
- 4 If you maintain something at a level, it means you keep it at the same level.
- 5 If something, e.g. a way of learning, is effective, it doesn't work very well.
- 6 At least 50 people means a maximum of 50 people.
- 7 If you write something then rub it out, you remove it from the page.
- 8 If you do something silently, you do it without making a noise.
- 9 Revision means studying something for the first time.
- 10 If you have a goal or target, you have something you want to be able to do or achieve by a particular point in the future.

Now check your answers on the opposite page and look at any wrong answers carefully. Then rub out your answers and come back to this exercise again tomorrow or within the next two or three days. Find out how much you can remember.

1.4 Planning your self-study.

Now start making your own plans to use this book. Decide how much time you can spend each week, plan some longer periods to study units for the first time, but also some shorter periods for revision. The first five units will teach you some important vocabulary; give you ideas on keeping a notebook; and give you help with pronunciation. After that, continue with the units that interest you most.

Good luck.

2 Keeping a vocabulary notebook

A Organising your notebook

Give each page or double page a title, e.g. sport, education, phrasal verbs, etc. Then, as you learn new words, record each one on a suitable page. You could also have a general index in the back of your book, with a space for each letter. Then, as you learn new words, you enter them alphabetically with the title of the topic in brackets.

B What do I need to record?

These things are important but you won't need to record all of them for every word.

What?	How?	Example
Meaning	a translation	lembrar = to remember (Portuguese)
	b definition/explanation	A pond is an area of water smaller than a lake.
	c synonym or opposite	awful (= terrible); ugly (≠ beautiful)
	d picture	saucepan
Pronunciation	e example sentences phonetic symbols or your own system	My hands were cold so I put on my gloves. ache /eɪk/ ache (like 'make')
Part of speech	(n), (v), (adj), etc.	gloves (n); remember (v), careful (adj), ache (n, v)
Grammar	make a note + example sentence	enjoy + -ing form; I enjoy going to parties.
Common partners	phrase or sentence	weather (U); We had lovely weather in Italy.
Special style	make a note	make a mistake; make a decision; make a mess purchase (/fml/); kids (/informal/)

Note: You won't learn everything about a word when you first record it, so always leave space in your notebook, then you can come back and add more information later.

C Organising words on the page

Certain words often appear together (common partners), so it is a good idea to record them together, and not just write lists of words on their own. You can do this in different ways:

3 smile (v, n)
e.g. She smiled at me yesterday.
He gave me a big smile.
She's got a lovely smile.

Exercises

- 2.1 Organise this list of words into three groups and give each one a title.

tie	put on	fare	blouse	homeless	train	get on painful	scarf	jumper	jacket	journey	careful	station
helpful	jeans	platform	thoughtless	ticket	useless

Find the units in this book which may include these words and add more examples.

- 2.2 Underline the correct answer or answers.

- A pond is:
a) bigger than a lake b) smaller than a lake c) the same size
- I really enjoy.
a) play tennis b) to play tennis c) playing tennis
- When we were on holiday we had:
a) lovely weathers b) lovely weather c) a lovely weather
- The underlined letters in ache are pronounced the same as in:
a) machine b) catch c) chemist
- She gave me a smile
a) strong b) big c) large
- The past tense of fall is:
a) fell b) felt c) failed
- You can put on:
a) gloves b) a decision c) shoes
- Rise sharply means:

- 2.3 Look again at the list a–e in B. Which would be the best way(s) to record the meaning of each word in the list below? What other information would be useful to record with this word (e.g. pronunciation, part of speech, grammar, common partners, etc.)? Use a dictionary to help you.

dream	concentrate	beard	nearly empty	forget	rescue	knife

- 2.4 Fill the gaps with common partners for these verbs, then start a page in your own notebook for more examples. Turn to Unit 19 to help you.

take a picture make a mistake

do your homework have a rest

3 Using a dictionary

A What dictionaries do I need?

If possible, you should buy two dictionaries: a good bilingual dictionary and a good English–English dictionary. The bilingual dictionary is quicker and easier for you to understand, the English–English dictionary may give you more information about a word or phrase, and it is also a good idea for you to work in English as much as possible. Here are some current recommended English–English dictionaries:

Large dictionaries

Cambridge International Dictionary of English
Longman Dictionary of Contemporary English
Collins COBUILD English Dictionary
Oxford Advanced Learner's Dictionary

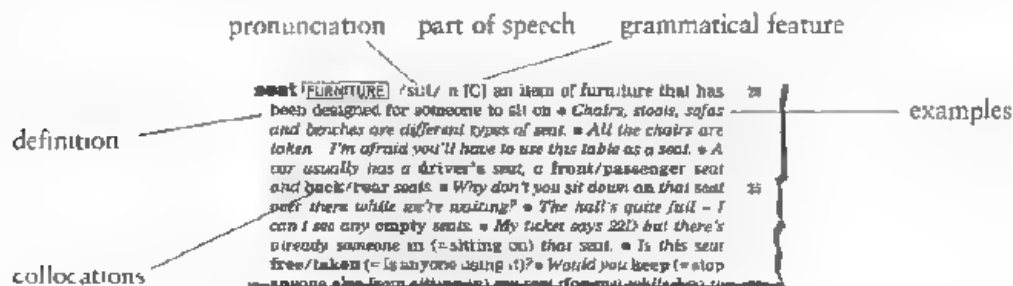

Medium-sized dictionaries

Collins COBUILD Essential Dictionary
Oxford Wordpower Dictionary
Longman Active Study Dictionary

B What information does a dictionary give me?

- the meaning, e.g. homesick – unhappy when you are away from home for a long time
- the pronunciation, e.g. chaos /keɪɒs/, dreadful /dredfʊl/, island /aɪlənd/
- the part of speech, e.g. dirty adj (= adjective), lose v (= verb), law n (= noun)
- any special grammatical features, e.g. advice (U) (= uncountable)
- common collocations (word partners), e.g. you do homework [NOT you ~~make~~ homework]
- example phrases or sentences, e.g. It was such a big menu, I didn't know what to choose
- opposites (where they exist), e.g. polite (≠ impolite/rude)

Note: In most English–English dictionaries for foreign learners, collocations are usually shown in bold or italics, or they are included in the examples given after the definition.

C How should I use my dictionary?

Here are some ideas to help you.

- When you look up a word, put a ✓ next to it. Each time you return to a page with a ✓ look at it quickly to check that you remember the word.
- If you see an English word in a text, first try to guess the meaning, and carry on reading to see if your guess seems correct. Use your dictionary to check the meaning.
- If you look up a word in a bilingual dictionary and get several different words in your own language, look up the word in your monolingual dictionary. This should help you to decide which word in your own language is the nearest translation in this context.
- Remember that many words have more than one meaning, and the first meaning in the dictionary is not always the one you want. Read through the different meanings.

Exercises

If you find these exercises difficult, it may mean that you need to practise using a dictionary more often, or you need to buy yourself a better dictionary.

- 3.1 Use a dictionary to find/check the answers to these questions. (They are all based on words from the opposite page.)
- 1 What does dreadful mean?
 - 2 How do you pronounce lose? (Is it the same as 'choose' or 'chose'?)
 - 3 What part of speech is choose?
 - 4 What part of speech is homesick?
 - 5 Homework and chaos are both nouns, but what type of noun are they?
 - 6 What adjectives are often used before chaos? (Give two.)
 - 7 What two prepositions are often used after choose?
 - 8 Write down a sentence example of choose used with a preposition.
- 3.2 When you look up a word, you can also use your dictionary to increase your vocabulary by learning related words and phrases. Find out if your dictionary helps you to answer these questions, also about words from the opposite page.
- 1 Choose is a verb, but what is the noun with the same meaning?
 - 2 Advice is a noun, but what is the verb with the same meaning?
 - 3 Advice is also uncountable, but you can make it countable using another word. Can you complete this sentence: 'He gave me a very useful of advice.'
 - 4 What adjective is formed from chaos?
 - 5 What is the opposite of dirty?
 - 6 What is the difference between homework and housework?
 - 7 What is the opposite of lose a game?
 - 8 What is the opposite of lose weight?
 - 9 Law often appears in the phrase law and What is the missing word?
 - 10 If you want to sit at a table in a cafe and you see that one person is sitting there already, but another seat is empty, what can you say to the person sitting down?
- 3.3 In the word 'island' /aɪlənd/, the letter 's' is silent (= not pronounced). Use the pronunciation guide in your dictionary to find the silent letters in each of these words. (Do not include the letter 'e' at the end of a word.)
- knife bomb psychology receipt castle doubt wrist calm
- Note:* Students often ask if the letter 't' is pronounced in 'often'. Some people pronounce it, others don't. What does your dictionary say?
- 3.4 Look at the entry for suit on the right, then match the definitions with the sentences on the left.
- 1 I'm afraid black doesn't suit me - my hair is the wrong colour.
 - 2 A: I'm not going, so don't ask me again.
B: OK. Suit yourself.
 - 3 If we have the meeting this afternoon, would 2.30 suit you?

suit ¹ v (T) 1 to be acceptable or convenient for a particular person or in a particular situation. Finding a date that suits us all is very difficult. 2 v (T) 2 to be suitable for a particular purpose. Buy a database program to suit your needs. 3 adj (fine) spoken (= be completely acceptable) "Eight o'clock?" "That suits me fine." 4 phrasal v (fine) 4 to be exactly right for someone. Yup, this little car suits me down to the ground. 5 phrasal v (fine) 5 to make someone look attractive. That coat really suits Paul. 6 adj (fine) 6 to be suitable for someone. Red suits you. —see fit (USAGE) 7 adj (fine) 7 well/best/ideally suited to have the right qualities to do something. Dirk would be ideally suited to the job. 8 phrasal v (fine) 8 to tell someone they can do whatever they want to, even though it annoys you. "I don't really feel like going out after all." "Suit yourself." 9 phrasal v (fine) 9 to fit well into someone's life. His book fits in perfectly with his ideas.

adjectives	e.g. happy, tall, dangerous
adverbs	e.g. slowly, carefully, often prepositions	e.g. in, at, on pronouns	e.g. me, you, him, we, it, she articles	e.g. definite article (the); indefinite article (a/an)

B Special terms

Uncountable noun: (U) a noun which has no plural form and cannot be used with the indefinite article, e.g. information. See Unit 27.

Plural noun: (pl) a noun which only has a plural form and cannot be used with the indefinite article, e.g. trousers. See Unit 27.

Infinitive: the base form of a verb, e.g. (to) work, (to) stop, (to) be.

Phrasal verb: a verb + adverb and/or preposition, e.g. turn on (verb + adverb), look after (verb + preposition), give up (verb + adverb), put up with (verb + adverb + preposition). See Units 16 and 17.

Idiom: a group of words with a meaning that is different from the individual words, e.g. never mind, hang on, a short cut, keep an eye on something.

Transitive verb: a verb which needs a direct object, e.g. Police caught the man ('the man' is the direct object of the verb 'caught'). See Unit 17.

Intransitive verb: a verb which does not need a direct object, e.g. The books arrived on time. (There is no direct object after arrive.) See Unit 17.

C Word building

In the word uncomfortable, un- is a prefix, comfort is a root, and -able is a suffix. Other common prefixes include: re-, in-, and dis-; common suffixes include: -ity, -ment, and -ive. Many words also have synonyms, which are words with the same meaning. For example, 'big' is a synonym of 'large'. The opposite is 'small'.

D Pronunciation

Dictionaries show the pronunciation of a word using phonetic symbols, e.g. book /bʊk/, before /bɪ'fɔː/, cinema /'sɪnəmə/, and so on.

Each word contains one or more syllables. 'book' has one syllable, 'before' has two syllables (be-fore); 'cinema' has three syllables (ci-ne-ma); 'education' has four syllables (e-du-ca-tion); and so on.

For pronunciation, it is important to know which syllable has the main stress. On 'before' it is the second syllable (before); on 'cinema' it is the first (cinema); and on 'education' it is the third (education).

Note: Dictionaries mark stress in different ways: in bold (return); or a ' before the main syllable (re'turn). Make sure you understand how your dictionary shows it.

Exercises

- 4.1 There is one word missing in each line of this text. Where does the missing word go? What could it be? And what type of word is it (noun, verb, etc.)? Look at the example first.

Last year I went to ~~for~~ my holiday. I spent the first Spain (noun) week Seville staying with a couple of friends, and then I took a train to Barcelona where I spent another ten days. It is a beautiful city and I had a marvellous time. I stayed in a very hotel right in the centre, but I didn't mind spending a lot of money because it is a wonderful and also very convenient. My brother was the person who recommended it; he goes to Spain a lot and he stays anywhere else.

- 4.2 In the dialogue below, can you find at least one example of the following: an uncountable noun; a plural noun; a phrasal verb; an idiom?

A: What's the time?
B: 8 o'clock, so we'd better get a move on if we're going to meet your sister at the airport.
A: That's alright. Her flight doesn't arrive until 8.30.
B: Yeah, but it'll take us an hour to get there – you know what the traffic is like.
A: OK. I'll just go and get changed.
B: What's wrong with those shorts?
A: I don't like driving in shorts. I'm going to put some jeans on.

- 4.3 I look at the underlined verbs in these sentences. Which are transitive, which are intransitive?

- | | |
|------------------------------------|---|
| 1 She broke her leg. | 4 Take off your jacket. |
| 2 I got up at seven thirty. | 5 She doesn't like Chinese food. |
| 3 We arrived late. | 6 He told me to get down . |

- 4.4 How many syllables are there in each of the words in the box?

English	noun	informal	education understand	adjective	decide	pronunciation
before	opposite	preposition	comfortable

Now mark the main stress on each of the above words.

- 4.5 Look at these words, then answer the questions below.

happy correct lucky sure possible

- What part of speech are these words?
- Change each one into an adverb.
- Can you write down a synonym for at least three of the words?
- Which prefix do you need to form the opposite of each word? (three different ones)
- Which word has the main stress on the second syllable?

5 Problems with pronunciation

A Phonetics

With many languages you can look at a word and know (more or less) how to pronounce it. With English this is not true: it is often very difficult to know the pronunciation from looking at a word. For example:

cough (pronounced like 'off') enough (like 'stuff') through (like 'too') and dough (like 'so')

The only way you can be sure about the pronunciation is to learn some phonetic symbols which tell you the pronunciation. Dictionaries use them, and there is a table of phonetic symbols, with examples, on page 246. Phonetic symbols are used next to many words in the index, and there is a special list of words on page 247, which cause pronunciation problems for speakers from different countries.

B Word stress

When a word has two or more syllables, one of them has the main stress. In these examples, the main stress follows the symbol ':

'accent pre'fer edu'cation 'necessary Ja'pan Japa'nese

If you put the stress on the wrong syllable, it may be difficult for listeners to understand what you are saying.

C /ə/

Probably the most important sound in English because it is often the pronunciation of the letters 'a', 'o' and 'e' if they are not part of a stressed syllable.

ma'chine /mə'ʃi:n/ 'mother /mʌðə/ po'tato /pə'tetəʊ/ 'cinema /'sɪnəmə/

D Key letters and sounds

A common problem is that a single letter or combination of letters has more than one pronunciation, e.g. ough in section A. Here are some more examples:

the letter 'o' is often /ɒ/, e.g. hot; or /ʌ/, e.g. some; or /əʊ/, e.g. no

the letter 'a' is often /æ/, e.g. hat; or /eɪ/, e.g. same; or /aɪ/, e.g. fast the letter 'u' is often /ʌ/, e.g. run; or /ʊ/, e.g. put the letter 'i' is often /ɪ/, e.g. sit; or /aɪ/, e.g. side

E Silent letters and short syllables

There are many words in English where a letter is not pronounced.

fasten plumber calm knee wrong comb

There are also many words where we almost 'eat' one of the syllables, and as a result a vowel sound almost disappears and a word, for example, with three written syllables may be two (or two and a half) in spoken English. For example:

interested /ɪn'trestɪd/ fattening /fæt'nɪŋ/ vegetable /vedʒəbəl/

Note: The exercises on the next page practise some words with difficult pronunciation.

Exercises

- 5.1 Try using some phonetic symbols. Using your dictionary or the index, fill in the pronunciation of these words (put the symbols between the / /). Then practise saying the words and make sure you can see and hear the difference in the pronunciation of the words in each pair.

1 row / / cow / / 2 back / / bacon / /

3 soap / / soap / / 4 vase / / razor / /

- 5.2 Look at the underlined letters in these words. Which one is the odd one out in each case?

- 1 bread dream spread dead
- 2 spoon room flood choose
- 3 fast phrase blame sunbathe
- 4 cousin wound (n) rough trouble
- 5 virus pilot diet since
- 6 hyphen symptom type psychology

- 5.3 Which syllable has the main stress in these words? Put them in the correct column.

cathedral policy palace opposite police understand advertisement desert (n) competition organise assistance education

first	second	third

Now look at the words again. How many examples of the /ɔ/ sound can you find?

- 5.4 Look at the underlined letters in these pairs of words. Is the pronunciation the same or different?

know / knife muscle / scissors island / Islam canb / bomb listen / western honest / hope aisle / Christmas wrong / wrist hand / handsome calf / calm

6 Classroom language

Enrique, could you swap places (= exchange places) with Lorena?

Repeat this sentence (= say it again) after me.

7 Prefixes

A With the meaning 'not'

Prefixes (un-, in-, il-, ir-, and dis-) are often used to give adjectives (and some verbs and nouns) a negative meaning. Here are common examples:

happy	unhappy	like (v)	dislike (v)
possible	impossible	legal	illegal (= against the law)
correct	incorrect	regular	irregular, e.g. irregular verbs

un- is used with many different words, e.g. unfriendly, unable, unemployed (= without a job), untidy (= not in order; in a mess)

im- is used before some words beginning with m or p, e.g. impolite (= rude), impatient (somebody who is impatient wants things to happen now, they cannot wait for things) il- is used before some words beginning with l, e.g. illegible (= cannot be read because the writing is very bad)

ir- is only used before some words beginning with r, e.g. irresponsible dis- is used before some adjectives, e.g. dishonest, and a few verbs, e.g. dislike, disagree in- is used before a limited number of words, e.g. invisible (= cannot be seen)

Note A prefix does not normally change word stress, e.g. happy/unhappy; possible/impossible. But the stress may change if you want to emphasise the negative or opposite.

A: Was he happy about the change?

B: No, he was very unhappy about it.

B Verb prefixes: un- and dis-

These prefixes have two meanings. they can have a negative meaning (as above), but they can also mean 'the opposite of an action' or 'to reverse an action'. This meaning is used with certain verbs.

I locked the door when I left, but I lost the key, so I couldn't unlock it when I got back.

I had to pack my suitcase (= put everything in it very quickly, so when I unpacked (= took everything out) at the hotel, most of my clothes looked terrible.

The plane appeared in the sky, then suddenly disappeared behind a cloud

In the morning you get dressed (= put on your clothes); when you go to bed you get undressed (= take off your clothes).

C Other verb prefixes with specific meanings

re- (= again)	My homework was terrible, so I had to redo it. The shop closed down but will reopen next month. I failed my exam but I can retake (or redo/resit) it next year over- (= too much)	I think my boss is overdoing it at the moment. (= working too hard; also overwork) I went to bed very late and I overslept (= slept too long) this morning. The shop assistant overcharged me. (= asked me for too much money) mis- (= badly or incorrectly)	I'm afraid I misunderstood what he said. Two of the students misread the first question.

Exercises

8 Noun suffixes

A Verb + suffix

Many nouns are formed in this way.

Verb	Suffix	Noun improve (= get better)	-ment	improvement manage (e.g. a shop or business)	-ment	management elect (= choose somebody by voting)	-ion	election discuss (= talk about something seriously)	-ion	discussion inform (= tell someone something)	-ation	information organise	-ation	organisation
jog (= running to keep fit or for pleasure)	-ing	jogging
spell (e.g. S-P-E-L-L)	-ing	spelling

Note: Sometimes there is a spelling change. The most common is the omission of the final 'e' before the suffix -ion or -ation; translate/translation; organise/organisation

B Adjective + suffix

Nouns are also formed by adding a suffix to an adjective. Two suffixes often added to adjectives to form nouns are -ness and -ity.

Adjective	Suffix	Noun weak (≠ strong)	-ness	weakness
happy	-ness	happiness
dark (e.g. at night, when you can't see)	-ness	darkness stupid (≠ intelligent, clever)	-ity	stupidity
punctual (= always arrives at the right time)	-ity	punctuality similar (= almost the same; ≠ different)	-ity	similarity

C Pronunciation

The addition of these suffixes may change the pronunciation.

Nouns ending -ion or -ity have the main stress on the syllable before, so the pronunciation may be different from the verb or adjective:

Verb	Noun	Adjective	Noun
educate	edu ca tion	simi lar	simi la rity
transla te	trans la tion	stupi d	stupi di ty
discuss	disc uss ion	punctu al	punctu a lity

D -er/-or and -ist

These are common noun suffixes added to existing nouns or verbs, and they describe people and their jobs.

-er	-er	-or	-ist
dancer	driver	actor	artist
singer	manager	director	economist
murderer	footballer	translator	psychologist
farmer	employer	operator	journalist

Note: Notice the common spelling changes:
transate/translator, operate/operator, economy/economist, psychology/psychologist.

Exercises

- 8.1 Complete the tables and mark the stress on each word. The last two in each column are not on the opposite page, but do you know or can you guess the noun formed from them?

Verb	Noun	Adjective	Noun
educate		stupid
improve		dark
log		weak
govern		similar spell		punctual
hesitate		sad
arrange		popular

- 8.2 Combine the suffixes on the right with the verbs or adjectives on the left, and then complete the text below. (Remember you may need to make a small spelling change.)

improve	televis	elect educate	weak	manage govern	stupid

-ment	-ity	-ion	-ation	-ness
-------	------	------	--------	-------

In his first broadcast on (1) _____ since he won the (2) _____ last month, the Prime Minister promised to make health and (3) _____ two of his top priorities. And in a strong attack on the previous (4) _____, he said that the present (5) _____ of the British

| 3 football | | 6 psychology | | 9 manage |

- 8.4 Look at the two examples and then complete the rest of the definitions.

- 6 A pop singer is a person who
- 7 A translator is a person who
- 8 A lorry driver is a person who
- 9 A photographer is a person who
- 10 An artist is a person who

9 Adjective suffixes

Suffixes change word class, e.g. from verb to noun or noun to adjective, but they can also change meaning (see sections B and C below).

A Noun or verb + suffix

Noun or Verb	Suffix	Adjectives danger, fame	-ous	dangerous, famous (= well-known) music, politics	-al	musical, political, industrial, economical (= saves you money) industry, economics
cloud, fog, sun, dirt	-y	cloudy, foggy, sunny, dirty (≠ clean)
attract, create	-ive	attractive (= pretty, nice to look at); creative (= able to produce new ideas; with imagination)

Note: Sometimes there is a spelling change. Here are common examples:

double the consonant, e.g. sun/sunny, fog/foggy leave out the final 'e', e.g. create/creative, fame/famous leave out the final 's' before 'al', e.g. politics/political; economics/economical change 'y' to 'i' before 'al', e.g. industry/industrial

B -able /-ible/

This suffix (also -ible in some words) is used to form many adjectives from nouns or verbs: enjoyable, comfortable, knowledgeable (= knows a lot), suitable (= right/correct for a particular situation).

Quite often, -able and -ible has the meaning 'can be done'. For example, something that is washable 'can be washed'. Other examples include:

drinkable, comprehensible (= can be comprehended or understood), reliable (= can be relied on or trusted, e.g. a car or other machine that never goes wrong or breaks down).

Words ending -able quite often express the opposite meaning by adding the prefix un-: undrinkable, unreliable, unbreakable (= cannot be broken), unsuitable, uncomfortable

Words ending -ible add the prefix in-:

incomprehensible, inflexible (somebody who is inflexible has a fixed idea about something and cannot change quickly or easily; an inflexible timetable cannot be changed easily); inedible (= cannot be eaten).

C -ful and -less

The suffix -ful often means 'full of' + the meaning of the adjective: careful, you are full of care; if you are helpful you are full of help. Other examples are: painful (= hurts a lot), useful, and thoughtful (= someone who is thoughtful is kind and always thinks about others; a thoughtful action shows care for others)

The suffix -less means 'without' + the meaning of the adjective: if you are careless, you do something 'without care'. Other examples are: painless, useless (= has no use or function) thoughtless, jobless and homeless (= with nowhere to live)

Note: You can see that -ful and -less are often used with the same words to form opposites. This is not always true: a person with a home is NOT homeful.

Exercises

- 9.1 Write down an adjective (or adjectives) formed from these nouns or verbs. Cover the opposite page first.

thought	dirt	pain	comfort
attract	care	knowledge	fame create	danger	suit	rely fog	politics	sun	wash
home	enjoy	music	break use

- 9.2 Fill the gaps with suitable adjectives from the opposite page.

- 12 It seems terrible to me that there are so many _____ people living in a city with thousands of empty houses.

- 9.3 How many of these words can form opposites with the suffix -less?

painful wonderful useful careful beautiful tactful awful thoughtful

Can you think of words which mean the opposite of the other words (the ones without -less)?

- 9.4 From the adjectives on this page and the opposite page, choose three which could describe each of these people or things. (You can use the same adjective more than once.)

- 1 the weather _____
- 2 someone who is a very bad driver _____
- 3 Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart _____
- 4 a large city _____
- 5 Albert Einstein _____
- 6 a new car _____
- 7 a speech _____

10 Zero affixation

A What is zero affixation?

Many words in English can function as a noun and verb, or noun and adjective, or verb and adjective, with no change in form. The meaning is not always the same, but this unit looks at examples where the words do have the same meaning

What's the answer? (noun)

Answer the question. (verb)

I don't like the cold. (noun)

I don't like cold weather. (adjective)

I must clean my room. (verb)

It's a clean room. (adjective)

I didn't reply to the letter. (verb)

I wrote a reply to the letter. (noun)

Note: Other examples in the book are marked like this: ache (n, v), damage (n, v), dry (v, adj). Keep a record of them in your notebook.

B Noun and verb

You may know these words in one form but not the other. (The definitions are for the verb.)

brake (= stop a car using the brake on the floor) diet (= eat less and lose weight) guess (= give an answer without knowing the facts)

ring (= phone) push (≠ pull)

murder (= kill someone)

Note: Other words in this group include: stay, drink, rest, look, cost, and wait. Use a dictionary if you need to check the meaning. Here are a few examples:

We queued for half an hour.

This orange smells/tastes strange.

I didn't know the answer, so I guessed.

We waited in a queue for half an hour.

This orange has got a strange smell/taste.

I didn't know the answer, so I had a guess

C Which verb?

When you use these words as nouns, you need to choose the correct verb to use with it.

Verb

We stayed in Paris for a short time.

We rested for a while.

She braked quickly.

He needs to diet.

I'm going to ring him.

I looked in the paper.

He pushed me.

I dreamt about you last night.

Noun

We had a short stay in Paris.

We had a short rest.

She put on the brakes quickly.

He needs to go on a diet.

I'm going to give him a ring.

I had a look in the paper.

He gave me a push.

I had a dream about you last night.

Exercises

- 10.1 Rewrite these sentences using the underlined nouns as verbs. The meaning must stay the same. Look at the example first.

Example: There was a lot of rain yesterday.
It rained a lot yesterday.

- 1 We had a long wait.
- 2 I had a dream about you last night.
- 3 We waited in the queue for half an hour.
- 4 The cost of the holiday was about £500.
- 5 I wrote a reply to his letter yesterday.

- 10.2 Now rewrite these sentences using the underlined verbs as nouns. The meaning must stay the same.

- 1 I'll ring him this evening.
- 2 I diet if I put on weight.
- 3 It was very hot, so we rested for a while after lunch.
- 4 I braked but I still couldn't stop in time.
- 5 He pushed me.
- 6 Did you look in the paper?

- 10.3 Sometimes the same word form can be a verb and noun but with a very different meaning. Read these pairs of sentences. Does the verb have the same meaning as the noun, a similar meaning, or a completely different meaning?

- 1 We had a long wait for the bus.
If we wait any longer, we may miss the train.
- 2 Could we have another bottle of water, please?
I asked her to water the garden.
- 3 I gave him the book.
Did you book the table in the restaurant?
- 4 They always take a break after an hour's work.
Did he break his arm skiing?
- 5 I go for a run most mornings.
I was late so I had to run to get to school on time.

Compound nouns

A Formation

A compound noun is formed from two nouns, or an adjective and a noun. Here are some common examples.

alarm clock	dining room (= the room where you eat meals)
credit card	film star (e.g. Tom Cruise, Jodie Foster)
table tennis	brother-in law (= your sister's husband, your husband's brother)
T shirt	income tax (= the tax you pay on your salary)
earring	writing paper (= paper for writing letters)
sunglasses	washing machine (= the machine for washing clothes)
traffic lights	cheque book (= a book which has cheques)
tin opener	baby-sitter (= he/she looks after children when parents are out)
parking meter	*mother tongue (= your first language)
*first aid	*science fiction (= stories about the future)
*pedestrian crossing	*box office (= where you buy tickets in cinemas and theatres)

B One word or two?

Compound nouns are usually written as two words (e.g. credit card), but sometimes they are joined by a hyphen (e.g. baby-sitter), or written as one word (e.g. sunglasses). Unfortunately there is no rule for this, so you may need to check in a dictionary.

C Pronunciation

The main stress is usually on the first part (e.g. parking meter) but sometimes it is on both parts (e.g. mother tongue). In A, the compounds marked *all have the stress on both parts. Some dictionaries show the stress on compounds.

D Forming new compounds

Quite often, one part of a compound forms the basis for a number of compound nouns.

post/ticket/box office traffic lights/warden/jam film/pop/rock star brother/sister/father/mother -in-law dining/sitting/waiting room

Note: A traffic jam is a long line of cars which are moving slowly because the road is busy, and traffic wardens patrol the streets to make sure you are not parked in the wrong place illegally. You buy theatre tickets at the box office and train tickets at the ticket office.

Exercises

- 11.1 Find compound nouns on the opposite page connected with each of these topics.

- 10 My brother loves, but I prefer true stories about the present or the past.

- 11.3 Take one word (the first part or the second part) from each compound and create a new compound. Use a dictionary to help you if necessary.

Examples: brother-in-law mother-in-law
 table tennis table leg

dining room	traffic lights film star	sunglasses
credit card	post office
toothpaste	hairdryer

Now mark the main stress on each of the compound nouns you have created.

- 11.4 Try creating your own compound nouns. Choose two or three common words and then try to form compound nouns from them. When you have two or three possibilities, check in a dictionary to see if your words exist. Start with these.

12 Compound adjectives

A Formation and pronunciation

A compound adjective is formed from two different words, and occasionally three. They are usually written with a hyphen (e.g. good-looking, well-known), and the stress is usually the same on both parts of the compound.

B Describing people

Many compound adjectives describe a person's appearance, character, and situation.

This is William. He isn't well-known (= famous), he isn't well-off (= rich), and I've never heard anyone say he was good-looking (= handsome/attractive). But he's a very nice man – kind, friendly and very easy-going (= relaxed). In this picture he's wearing a short-sleeved shirt and a brand-new (= completely new) hat

C 'Well' and 'badly'

These adverbs combine with many past participles to form compound adjectives. You can use 'well' or 'badly' in front of the adjective (except well-known, which has no opposite).

a well-directed film	a badly paid job (= a low salary)
a well-made pair of shoes	a badly-behaved child (= acting in a bad way)
a well-written story	a badly-dressed young man (= wearing horrible clothes)

D A 'five-minute' walk

It is common to combine a number and a singular noun to form a compound adjective.

It's a fifteen-minute drive to the centre. (= a drive of fifteen minutes)

He works in a four-star hotel. (= a hotel with a rating of four stars)

I gave her a five-pound note. (= a note with a value of five pounds)

The winner was a ten-year-old girl. (= a girl who is ten years old)

There was a two-hour delay on our flight. (= the plane was two hours' late)

E Common compounds

She had a full-time job in a bank, but after the baby was born she changed to a part-time job and just worked in the mornings

The hotel is north-west of here, about ten miles away. (also north-east, south-east, and south-west)

Most of the population are right-handed, but about 10% are left-handed

On trains and planes you can buy a first-class ticket if you are happy to pay a lot more.

Mary bought a second-hand BMW (= the car was not brand-new, but was a new car for her)

Note. As with compound nouns, you can often combine different words with one part and form many different compound adjectives.

- 12.4 Write ten sentences about yourself and use a different compound adjective from the opposite page in each one. You can describe yourself, your personality, your family, your clothes, the place where you live, the journeys you make, etc. Try to do this exercise with a friend and see who can finish first.

13 Collocation (word partners)

A What is collocation?

If you want to use a word naturally, you need to learn the other words that often go with it (word partners). These can be very different from language to language. For example, in English we say:

I missed the bus (= I didn't catch the bus) [~~NOT I lost the bus~~]

She made a mistake [~~NOT she did a mistake~~]

A heavy smoker (= someone who smokes a lot) [~~NOT a strong smoker or a big smoker~~]

It was a serious illness [~~NOT a big illness or a strong illness~~]

B Verb + noun

The meaning of many of these examples may be clear, but did you know these verbs and nouns go together? Is it the same or different in your language?

start the car (= turn on the engine)	start a family (= think about having your first child)
tell a story	tell the truth (≠ tell a lie) tell a joke	run a shop/company (= manage/control it) get on a bus (≠ get off)	get in(to) a car (≠ get out (of) a car) miss a person (= be unhappy because that person is not there) miss a lesson (= when you don't come to a lesson)

C Adjective + noun

Common adjectives often combine with a wide range of nouns.

a soft drink (= non-alcoholic drink)	a soft voice (≠ a loud voice)
dry wine (≠ sweet wine)	dry weather (≠ wet weather)
strong coffee (≠ weak coffee)	a strong accent (≠ a slight accent)
hard work (= hard physically or mentally)	a great success (= very successful)
heavy traffic (= a lot of cars)	heavy rain (= raining a lot)

Look at some of these phrases in example sentences.

I can't understand his English because he has such a strong accent.

It was hard work organising the conference, but I think it was a great success.

You always get heavy traffic during the rush hour.

D Adverb + adjective

In these examples, all the adverbs mean very, but we choose to use them with certain adjectives. (You could still use very in all of these examples if you wish.)

I was terribly sorry to hear about your accident.

He's highly unlikely to come now. (= I'm almost sure he will not come)

She is fully aware of the problem. (= she knows all about the problem)

It is vitally important that you make a note of common collocations in your notebook.

E Collocation in dictionaries

All good dictionaries now include examples of common collocations but they do it in different ways: sometimes they are in bold print after the definition; sometimes in italics after the definition; and sometimes in the definition and examples. (See Unit 3, Section B.)

Exercises

- 13.1 You can keep a record of common collocations by using 'spidergrams'. These are very clear on the page and you can add to them. Complete these.

- 13.2 Write the opposite of these phrases and expressions.

- | | |
|-------------------|------------------|
| 1 sweet wine | 5 get on the bus |
| 2 a strong accent | 6 tell the truth |

- I don't drink coffee at night because it keeps me awake.
- I really my family when I stayed in Australia on my own last year.

- 13.4 The adjectives on the left can all mean 'very big', but we often use them specifically with the nouns on the right. Use a good dictionary to find the correct collocations, and then complete the sentences below.

wide	large broad	vast

shoulders	range
majority	size

- I used to be medium but I need a now because I've put on weight.
- Fortunately the shop I go to has a of shirts and jumpers to choose from.

14.4 A good dictionary will tell you if a verb or adjective is usually followed by a special preposition. Sometimes the preposition is shown after the verb or adjective; sometimes it is illustrated in the example sentences. Use a dictionary to find the preposition that often follows these words.

fond (adj) concentrate (v) responsible (adj) rely (v)

15 Preposition + noun

A Common patterns

There are many expressions formed by a preposition + noun, and sometimes a preposition is used with a particular meaning in a number of expressions, so they are very common.

A book by Stephen King, a film by Steven Spielberg, a song by Elton John.

You can go for a walk, for a drive, for a run, for a swim.

You can go in the morning, in the afternoon, in the evening (but ~~at~~ at night).

You can travel by car, by plane, by bus, by coach, by train, by taxi (but ~~on~~ on foot).

The man in the dark suit (= wearing the dark suit); the woman in the red dress.

B Fixed expressions

Sometimes it is difficult to know why a particular preposition is used, and you must learn these as fixed expressions.

I took his pen by mistake. (= I thought it was my pen)

I did all the work by myself. (= on my own; without help from others)

The shoes are made by hand. (= not by machine)

C In time or on time?

Sometimes two prepositions can be used with the same noun, but the meaning is different

Lessons begin at 8.30 and I always arrive on time. (= at 8.30)

Lessons begin at 8.30 and I always get there in time. (= before 8.30; I'm not late)

Exercises

15.1 Complete these sentences with the correct preposition. Cover the opposite page first.

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|---|
| 1 I saw it TV. | 11 I went the afternoon. |
| 2 They came car. | 12 He came foot |

| 9 He's holiday this week. | 19 We met chance. |
| 10 She took it mistake. | 20 She's ... least 25 years old. |

15.2 Replace the underlined words with a suitable prepositional phrase. Look at the example first.

Example: The meeting was planned for 11 a.m. and we got here at 11 a.m. on time

- I wrote the reports w.thout any help from anyone else.
- Did you get to the cinema before the film started?
- Thousands of people are w.thout jobs in my town.

- He gets killed in the last scene of the film.
- I'm afraid I'm very busy right now
- I saw her yesterday but I didn't plan to see her.

15.3 Respond to these questions with a negative answer and a suitable prepositional phrase. Look at the example first.

Example: Was it the man wearing the blue shirt?
No, the man in the white shirt.

- Did she hit him on purpose?
- Did they go by car?
- Are they here on holiday?
- Did you read about the accident in the newspaper?
- Did the others help him?
- Do you want to sit down and have a rest?

15.4 Look at the prepositional phrases on the opposite page again, and make a list of the ones which are not exact translations from your own language. Put the list in your pocket and carry it around with you. Test yourself as often as possible by thinking of a translation and/or explanation and/or example sentence for each one.

16 Phrasal verbs: form and meaning

A Formation

A phrasal verb is a verb combined with an adverb or preposition, and occasionally with an adverb and preposition.

The price of petrol may go up (= increase) again next week.

He fell over (= fell to the ground) when he was running for the bus.

She's promised to find out (= learn/discover) the name of that new hotel.

Who is going to look after (= take care of) the children when she goes into hospital?

If you don't understand the meaning, you can look it up (= find the meaning in a book – in this case a dictionary).

He doesn't get on with (= have a good relationship with) his parents. (verb + adv + prep)

B Meaning

Sometimes the meaning of a phrasal verb is very similar to the base verb, and the adverb just emphasises the meaning of the base verb, e.g. stand up, wake up, save up, hurry up, sit down, lie down and send off (e.g. a letter). On other occasions, the adverb adds the idea of completing the action of the verb, e.g. drink up (= finish your drink), eat up (= finish eating), finish off.

But more often, the meaning of a phrasal verb is very different from the base verb, e.g. go up doesn't mean the same as go; look after is different from look; and look after is also quite different from look up. An adverb or preposition can therefore change the meaning of a verb a great deal.

Here are some more examples of this type of phrasal verb.

It took her a long time to get over (= get better / recover from) her illness.

He told me to carry on (= continue) as far as the traffic lights.

I persuaded my wife to give up (= stop) smoking.

I can't make any sandwiches because we've run out of bread. (= the bread is finished / all used, so we have no bread)

In the end my next-door neighbour had to come and put out (= extinguish/stop) the fire.

C Multiple meaning

Many phrasal verbs have more than one meaning, so you must be careful when you see a phrasal verb you think you know, or look up the meaning in a dictionary. In the examples marked *, the phrasal verb is much more natural than the explanation in brackets.

It was not so I decided to take off (= remove) my jacket.

I am always nervous when the plane takes off (= leaves the ground).

I don't think I'll get through (= finish) this report before five o'clock.

I think she'll get through (= pass) the exam.

I picked up the rubbish (= took it from the ground or a low place) and put it in the bin.

I had to go to the shop to pick up (= collect) my photos.

My alarm clock didn't go off (= ring) this morning.

The bomb could go off (= explode) at any minute.

The fish will go off (= go bad) if you don't put it in the fridge.

16.3 Look at the dictionary entry for pick up, and match the meanings with the sentences below.

pick up v adv 1 [T] (pick sbdy./sthg. ↔ up) to take hold of and lift up: Pick up the box by the handles. -see picture on page 669 2 [T] (pick sthg. ↔ up) to gather together; collect: Please pick up all your toys when you've finished playing. 3 [I] to improve: Trade is picking up again. 4 [T] (pick sthg. ↔ up) to gain, get: Where did you pick up that book/your excellent English? 5 [I; T] (pick sthg. ↔ up) to (cause to) start again: to pick up (the conversation) where we left off 6 [T] (pick sbdy./sthg. ↔ up) to collect; arrange to go and get: *Pick me up at the hotel. 16.4 Write two sentences for each of these phrasal verbs to show their different meanings.

pick up take off go off get through

17 Phrasal verbs: grammar and style

Look at Unit 16 on the form and meaning of phrasal verbs before you do this unit.

A Grammar: intransitive verbs

Some phrasal verbs are intransitive and do not need a direct object.

The children are growing up. (= getting older and more mature)

The doctor told me to lie down on the bed.

Don't wait out there. Please come in. (= enter)

I'm going to stay in (= stay at home) this evening.

With these verbs, you cannot put another word between the verb and adverb

B Grammar: transitive verbs

But many phrasal verbs are transitive and do need a direct object. With some of these, you can put the object between the verb and adverb:

Put on your shoes ✓ Turn on the TV ✓

Put your shoes on ✓ Turn the TV on ✓

If the object is a pronoun, it must go between verb and adverb.

Put them on ✓ [NOT ~~Put on them~~] Turn it on ✓ [NOT ~~Turn on it~~]

Note: A dictionary will show you if you can put a word between the verb and adverb:

turn (vb) SWITCH /tɜːn, $tɜːn/ v (always + adv/prep) to use a control to switch (a piece of equipment) on or off or to increase or reduce what it is producing • Turn off, out the light. [M] • Who turned the telly on? [M] • I asked him to turn down the heating. [M] • Turn the sound up - I can't hear what they're saying [M] • This programme's boring - shall I turn over (= change the station) to BBC? [I] • This sort of heater turns off (= can be switched off) at the mains. [I] •

C Style: formal or informal

Some phrasal verbs can be used equally in written or spoken English. Sometimes this is because there is no other easy way to express the meaning of the phrasal verb.

I always wake up early, even at weekends.

The car broke down (= went wrong; stopped working) on the motorway.

The plane couldn't take off because of bad weather.

Thieves broke into (= entered by force and illegally) the house and took money, credit cards and all my jewellery.

D Informal phrasal verbs

But most phrasal verbs are informal and are more common in spoken English. In written English there is often a more formal word with the same meaning.

We had to make up a story. (= invent/create from our imagination)

I can usually get by on about £200 a week. (= manage)

You can leave out question 7. (= omit, i.e. you don't need to do question 7)

They've got a problem and they asked me to sort it out. (= resolve (it) / find a solution / do something about it)

Exercises

These exercises also practise and test some of the phrasal verbs from Unit 16.

17.1 Complete these sentences in a logical way.

- 1 I'm not very good at making up
- 2 Could you lie down
- 3 She asked me to turn on

- 6 Are you going to stay in
- 7 Why did you leave out
- 8 I'm afraid we broke down
- 9 Can you get by
- 10 I grew up

17.2 Is it possible to separate the two parts of the phrasal verb in the sentences below? Look at the examples first, and use a dictionary to check your answers. (You can also check your answers in the answer key.)

Examples: I forgot to get off the bus. NO (get the bus off X)
Why did he take off his trousers? YES (take his trousers off ✓)

- 1 She decided to carry on working
- 2 He had to put out the fire.
- 3 Could you turn on the radio?

- 8 Children grow up very quickly these days.
- 9 I turned off the light when I went to bed.
- 10 Can we leave out this question?

17.3 Make these texts more informal by changing some of the verbs to phrasal verbs with the same meaning. (There are three in each text.)

- 1 The cost of living is increasing all the time and I find it quite difficult to manage on my salary. But I think I can probably continue for a few months.
- 2 She told us to enter, but then we had to remove our shoes and I had to extinguish my cigarette.

18 Idioms and fixed expressions

A What is an idiom?

An idiom is a group of words with a meaning that is different from the individual words, and often difficult to understand from the individual words. Many of the phrasal verbs in Units 16 and 17 were idiomatic. Here are some more common idioms.

The teacher told us to get a move on. (= hurry; be quick)

My wife and I take it in turns to cook. (= I cook one day, she cooks the next, etc.)

I don't know the answer off-hand. (= without looking it up or asking someone)

It's not far. We can take a short cut (= a quick way) through the park.

I'm not very good at small talk (= social talk; not about serious things)

I'm sorry I can't make it (= come) on Friday.

I asked her to keep an eye on (= watch / look after) my suitcase while I went to the toilet.

B Fixed expressions

There are also expressions in English where the meaning is easy to understand, but the same idea in your language may need a completely different expression. In other words, if you just translate from your language, you may say something in English which is completely wrong. For this reason, you need to learn some expressions as idioms. For example:

A: What was wrong with the hotel?

B: Well, for a start it was next to a motorway and very noisy. And to make matters worse, there were factories on the other side of the road, which stayed open 24 hours a day.

It's not a problem in the short term (= at the moment) but in the long term (= for the longer future) we will need to think about it and probably spend some money on it.

C Using idioms

Idioms are important but they can be difficult to use correctly.

- With many idioms, if you make just a small mistake, it can sound strange, funny, or badly wrong. For example: get a move, a small talk, put an eye on, off-hands, etc
- Idioms often have special features: they may be informal or funny or ironic; they may only be used by certain people (e.g. young children, or teenagers, or elderly people); they may only appear in limited contexts; they have special grammar. For these reasons, you can often 'learn' the meaning of an idiom but then use it incorrectly. For example: After her husband died she was down in the dumps. (This idiom means 'sad and depressed' but is completely wrong here: the situation is too serious and the idiom is too informal.)

D Easy idioms to use

Some idiomatic expressions are used on their own, or with just one or two other words. These are often the easiest to use

A: Are you coming?

B: Yes, hang on. (= wait)

A: What's up? (= what's the matter?)

B: Nothing.

A: Can I borrow your dictionary?

B: Sure, go ahead. (= help yourself; take it, do it)

A: I don't know which one to choose.

B: Well, make up your mind. (= make a decision)

A: I'm really sorry but I've forgotten to bring the book you lent me.

B: That's OK. Never mind. (= it's OK, don't worry; it's not important)

21 Get: uses and expressions

A Meanings

Get is an informal word, so it is more common in spoken English than written English. It has many meanings. Here are some of the basic ones:

obtain (sometimes = buy)	She's trying to get a new job. Where did you get those shoes?

arrive	When did you get here? I'll phone when I get home.
fetch	Could you get the books from the cupboard? She went to get the children from school.

We sometimes use the more informal 'get' + past participle:

get undressed (= undress)	He got undressed and got into bed.

It's getting hot/cold	I'm getting hot/cold dark/light	tired
late	better/worse
better/worse	hungry
busy	ready (= preparing)

Note: The expression getting better at something can describe an improvement in your ability to do something, e.g. I'm getting better at English/swimming, it also describes an improvement in your health, e.g. She was very ill but she's getting better now. (≠ getting worse)

Go: uses and expressions

A Come vs. go

Go usually expresses a movement away from the position the speaker is in now; come expresses a movement towards the speaker.

Imagine you are at school. The time is 9.30 a.m.

I had to go to Jimmy's to pick up some books; then I went to the post office before I came to school.

Sometimes the speaker is in one place but imagines that they are already in another place. When Thomas meets Marta in Spain, he invites her to Switzerland. He says:

'Would you like to come and visit me in Bern?' (He imagines he is there and so her movement is towards him.)

We can also imagine that the listener is in a different place. Talking to Marta, Thomas says 'I'll come to your flat at 7.30 p.m.' (She will be at home, so his movement is towards her)

Note. It is a similar difference between bring and take:

I think I'll take my bike to the match and Peter can bring it back here tomorrow.

B Different meanings of 'go'

- When you leave a place in order to do an activity, you often express it either with go + -ing noun or go (out) + for a + noun. Here are some common examples riding (on horses).

We could go shopping.

They went sightseeing.

swimming (also 'for a swim').

She wants to go (out) for a walk.

(out) for a drink.

Let's go (out) for a drive.

(out) for a meal.

- Go is followed by certain adjectives to describe a change in state (usually to a worse state) with the meaning 'become' (get is also used with some adjectives)

My brother's hair is going grey, and my father is going bald. (= losing all his hair)

The company went bankrupt last year. (= lost all its money and had to stop operating)

My grandmother is going deaf. (deaf = cannot hear)

He'll go mad (= get very angry informal) if you wear his jacket

- It is often used to describe the speed something is traveling (also do):

We were going about 80 kph when the accident happened

- When you want to say/ask if a road or form of transport takes you somewhere:

Does this bus go to (= take me to) the National Gallery?

I don't think this road goes to (= leads to) the station.

C Expressions

I've never tried bungee jumping but I'd love to have a go. (= try it)

How's it going? (= How are you? informal) And you can use the same question if you want to know if something is easy, difficult, enjoyable, etc. For example, if you are doing an exercise in class, your teacher may ask: How's it going? (also How are you getting on?)

It's my go (also it's my turn). This expression is used in games such as chess or monopoly where you move from one player to another, then back.

Exercises

- 22.1 Complete the dialogue with suitable forms of these verbs: come, go, bring, take. (There are two verbs that can be used in one of the answers.)

 B: I'm not sure because Christopher is ⁽²⁾ here first, and then we'll ⁽³⁾ together.
 A: Right. Do you know what's happening about the music?
 B: Yeah. I'm going to ⁽⁴⁾ some CDs, and Sue is ⁽⁵⁾ her guitar. I'll probably leave quite early though, so do you think you could ⁽⁶⁾ my CDs back here tomorrow?
 A: Yeah sure. What time.
 B: Well, I want to ⁽⁷⁾ to the shops in the morning. Could you ⁽⁸⁾ before ten?
 A: No problem.
- 22.2 Replace the underlined words and expressions. The meaning must stay the same.

- 22.5 Look back at the different meanings of go (as verb and noun) on the opposite page. Translate these meanings into your own language. How many meanings use the word go in your language? How many are expressed with a different word or in a different way? Compare with someone who speaks the same language if possible.
- 22.6 Now look up go in a good English dictionary. You will find many meanings (including phrasal verbs and idioms), but just concentrate on two or three that you think may be useful to you. Try to learn them. Write down the meanings with example sentences in your notebook. Write a translation as well if you want.

Apologies, excuses, and thanks

A Apologies (= saying sorry)

We can apologise (= say sorry) in different ways in different situations:

	Situation
(I'm) sorry. I beg your pardon (fm!).	A general apology, e.g. you close the door in someone's face, interrupt someone, etc
I'm very/terribly/so/awfully sorry.	A stronger apology, e.g. you step on someone's foot or take their coat by mistake.
I'm very/really sorry I'm late.	When you are late for an appointment.
Sorry to keep you waiting. I won't be long. (= I will talk to you soon)	Someone is waiting to see you and you are busy, e.g. with someone else.

Note: In formal situations (especially in writing), we often use apologise and apology:
I must apologise for (being late). I would like to apologise for (the delay). Unfortunately, ...
Please accept our apologies for the mistakes in your order. We tried to ...

B Excuses and promises

If the situation is quite important we usually add an explanation or excuse after the apology. An excuse is the reason for the apology, which may or may not be true. (If it is not true, it should still be a reason that people will believe.) Here are some common excuses:

I'm sorry I'm late but I was delayed/held up at the airport.
I'm sorry I'm late, but my train was cancelled. (= the train was timetabled but did not run)

Note: To be/get delayed or be/get held up (infml) both mean to be late because of a problem that is out of your control

If you are responsible for a problem, you can offer or promise to do something about it.

I'm sorry about the mess in here. I'll clear it up. (= I'll tidy it up)
I'm sorry about the confusion, but I'll sort it out. (= I will solve the problems)

C Reassuring people

When people apologise to us, it is very common to say something to reassure them (= tell them that 'everything is OK'), and that we are not angry. These are all common expressions. Note that we often use two of them to emphasise the fact that 'it's OK'.

A: I'm sorry I'm late. B: That's OK. Don't worry. or Never mind. It doesn't matter. or That's OK. No problem

D Thanks

These are the most common ways of thanking people in everyday situations

A: Here's your pen. B: Oh, thank you / thanks (very much).
A: I'll answer that. B: Oh, thanks a lot (infml).
A: I'll post those letters for you. B: Oh, thank you. That's very kind of you.

If you go to someone's house for dinner, or stay with people in an English speaking country, you will need to thank them for their hospitality (= when people are kind and friendly towards their guests). You could say something like this:

Thank you very much for inviting me. It's been a lovely evening.
Thank you very much for everything. You've been very kind.

25 Opinions, agreeing and disagreeing

A Asking someone for their opinion

What do you think of his new book?
How do you feel about working with the others?
What are your feelings (pl) about the change in the timetable?
What's your honest opinion of that painting?

B Giving your opinion

I think Charles had the best idea.
I don't think he knew very much about the subject.
Personally, I think his first book is terrible.
In my opinion we should sell the old car and buy a new one.
As far as I'm concerned the whole evening was a waste of time.

Note:

- If you want to say something isn't a good idea you make 'think' negative:
I don't think it's a good idea. [~~NOT I think it's not a good idea.~~]
- Personally and As far as I'm concerned are more common in spoken English.
- As far as I'm concerned can mean, 'this is my opinion and I don't care what others think'.

C Giving the opinion of others

According to one of the journalists on television (= in the opinion of this journalist), the Prime Minister knew nothing about it.
The newspaper says that the Prime Minister knew weeks ago. (Note: we still use the verb say when referring to a written opinion)

D Agreeing with someone

We often agree by continuing with the same opinion or adding to it.

A: I think we should concentrate on this one project.

B: Yes, it's better to do one thing well than two things badly.

But if we want to make it clear we agree, we can use these expressions:

Yes, I agree (with you). (Note: agree is a verb in English. [~~NOT I am agree~~])

Yes, I think you're right.

E Disagreeing with someone

It is very common in English to begin with a short expression of agreement, and then give a different opinion. Here are some expressions used to introduce the disagreement:

Yes, perhaps/maybe/possibly	but don't you think ...
that's true	but I'm not sure that ...
you could be right	but don't forget ...

If you disagree strongly with someone you can say I'm afraid I totally disagree (with you).

Note: When we want to disagree but not completely, we can use these phrases:

Yes, I partly agree (with you), but ...

I agree to some extent / a certain extent, but ...

Tomorrow we're going to walk to a small seaside village about ten kilometres from here — I imagine I'll be really tired by the time we get back, but it does sound an interesting place and I'm looking forward to it.

B: Oh yes, it was

- 30.4 Can you think of an adjective from the opposite page to describe how the people felt in each of these situations?

- They walked about ten miles in the morning, then spent the afternoon helping some friends to cut down some trees.
- From the description in the travel brochure, they expected a beautiful big villa by the sea. In actual fact it was quite small, not very nice, and miles from the beach.
- They decided to wear jeans to the party but when they arrived everyone else was wearing formal evening dress.
- One person told them the street was on the left, another told them to turn right, and a third person said they had to go back to the station.
- When they got home there was a new car outside their house. They went inside and there was a new sofa in the lounge and a new dining table in the dining room.

3 | Prepositions: place

A At, On, In

Learn these rules.

- at a point/place x e.g. I met her at the bus stop. She lives at 43 Duke Road.
He's at work (i.e. not at home). They're at a party tonight
- on a surface x e.g. The book is on the desk. We sat on the floor.
- in an area or space x e.g. Malawi is a country in Africa. She lives in Milan. He's in the kitchen. The key's in my pocket. Put it in the box.

B Opposites

Some prepositions form pairs of opposites.

Note: Over/above are often synonymous, so are under/below, but over and under sometimes suggest movement.

When we flew over Paris we couldn't see much because we were above the clouds. Below us was the river which ran under the bridge.

C Here are some more common prepositions of place

We drove along the river, round the lake, past the old castle, and through the village.

We came over the bridge, and parked next to the house, which was opposite the hotel.

Our house is between two shops and it is near a bus stop; you just go across the road and walk along the other side towards the church.

Adverbs: frequency and degree

A Frequency (= how often)

Note:

- Adverbs of frequency go before the main verb with the exception of the verb 'to be':
I occasionally see them. They hardly ever go to the cinema now.
She is often late these days. I've never tried Korean food.
- Sometimes, occasionally and often can go at the beginning or end of the sentence:
They go to the zoo quite often. I play tennis occasionally.
Sometimes my parents give me money. Occasionally I work at the weekend

B Degree (= how much)

Note:

- Rather is more formal than the other words and often describes a negative situation:
We had rather bad weather. The food was rather expensive.
- For a positive situation, rather often indicates that something is better than we expected.
Her cooking is rather good actually. (I didn't expect that, so it was a very nice surprise.)
- Incredibly, pretty and a bit are informal and mostly used in spoken English; a bit is mostly used before negative adjectives (not positive ones) or adjectives with a negative prefix.
The food was pretty good. (= nearly 'very' good) That Ferrari is incredibly expensive
The hotel was a bit disappointing, actually. I thought she looked a bit unhappy

C Almost/nearly

It's almost/nearly five o'clock. (= it is probably about 4.57)

I almost/nearly lost the match. (= I won but only just; only by a small amount)

Note: almost the same NOT ~~quite the same~~

D Hardly

Hardly + a positive often has the same meaning as almost + a negative:

I hardly had anything to eat for lunch. (= I had almost nothing)

She could hardly walk after her operation. (= she almost couldn't walk)

Note: In the above sentences you can also use barely with the same meaning.

Exercises

32.1 Organise these mixed up words into correct sentences.

- 1 brother often us Sunday visits on my
- 2 me ever phones she hardly
- 3 have leg my broken never I
- 4 visit saw I hardly his him during
- 5 get occasionally I early up
- 6 always she Monday on early is work for a 32.2 Replace the underlined adverb with a different adverb that has the same meaning.

- 1 She seldom goes to conferences now
- 2 I can hardly remember the first house we lived in.
- 3 There were almost fifty people there, you know.
- 4 I thought it was a bit disappointing, didn't you?
- 5 I'm afraid I'm extremely busy next week.

32.3 Respond to these sentences using 'rather' to show surprise. (You can also add 'actually' at the end of the sentence.)

- 1 A: Was it a boring evening?
B: No, it
- 2 A: Were the children very noisy?
B: No, they
- 3 A: I've heard it's a very dirty town. Is that true?
B: No, it
- 4 A: Was the weather awful?
B: No, it

32.4 Change the underlined adverbs to make the first two sentences slightly more positive, and the last three sentences slightly less negative.

- 1 I thought they were very good.
- 2 He's been getting quite good marks in his exams
- 3 John said the flat was very small
- 4 They said it was fairly boring.
- 5 The clothes were very expensive.

32.5 Put a frequency adverb into each of these sentences to make a true sentence about yourself. Make sure you put the adverb in the correct place. Compare your answers with someone else if possible.

- 1 I buy clothes I don't like.
- 2 I clean my shoes.
- 3 I remember my dreams.
- 4 I give money to people in the street if they ask me for money.
- 5 I speak to strangers on buses and trains.
- 6 I'm rude to people who are rude to me.

Now think about each of your answers to the above sentences. Do you think they are:

a) very typical? b) fairly typical? c) slightly unusual? d) extremely unusual?

If you compared your answers with someone else, how would you describe their answers?

33 Time and sequence

A When and as soon as

I'll phone my uncle when I get home. / As soon as I get home I'll phone my uncle.
When you've finished you can go home. / You can go home as soon as you've finished.

Note. The meaning is the same, but as soon as suggests it is more immediate. Note also that both items can be followed by the present tense or the present perfect (but not will).

B Two things happening at the same time

Pat wrote some letters while I cooked the dinner. (two actions in the same period of time)
The accident happened while I was on my way to work. (Here there is a longer action 'on my way to work' and a shorter action 'the accident'. We can also use when or as here.)
I saw him (just) as I came out of the office. (For two very short actions we use as (not while), and we often use just as to emphasise that these two short actions happened at exactly the same moment: He opened the door just as I touched the handle.)

C One thing after another

We met the others in the cafe, and then we went to the match.
I finished my homework, after that I played a couple of computer games.
After my visit to New York, I decided to have a rest.
We had something to eat before we went out.

Note: We can also follow before and after with an -ing form:

After visiting New York, I ... We had something to eat before going out.

D A sequence of actions

We had a great holiday. First of all we spent a few days in St. Moritz. Then / After that we drove down to the Italian Riviera and stayed in Portofino for a week. Finally, we went back to Switzerland and visited some old friends in Lucerne.

Note:

- If one action happens soon after the other, we often use afterwards in place of after (that): First of all we met the others for a meal, and afterwards we went to the disco.
- If you want to say that something happened after a lot of time and/or a lot of problems, you can use eventually or in the end.

We took several wrong turnings and the traffic was awful, but eventually we got there.

E A sequence of reasons

There are different combinations of words and phrases we can use here:

SON: Why can't we go away this weekend?

DAD: First(ly) because I'm busy this weekend. Second(ly) you've got a lot of school work to do. And third(ly) we're planning to go away next weekend.

Note.

- We can also start with the phrases to begin with / to start with.
- In spoken English we can start with for one thing, followed by and for another (thing).
- For the second or final reason, we sometimes use (and) besides or anyway (informal):

We can't go to that club because it's too far. And besides, I'm not a member.

Exercises

33.1 Cross out the incorrect answers. Sometimes both answers are correct.

- 1 I'll give them your message as soon as I get / will get there.
- 2 Maria cleaned the kitchen as/while I did the bathroom.
- 3 We must go to that gallery before leave/leaving.
- 4 I had a lot of problems at the shop but eventually/finally they agreed to give me a refund
- 5 The phone rang while / just as I was leaving the house.
- 6 The letter arrived wh...e/as we were getting ready.

33.2 Complete these sentences in a suitable way.

- 1 We had a game of squash and afterwards
- 2 I'll meet you as soon as
- 3 I must remember to lock the back door before
- 4 I think I dropped the letter as
- 5 I looked up half of the words in my dictionary while
- 6 We had to wait for hours but eventually
- 7 My car is too big for you to drive. And besides,
- 8 I saw him break the window just as 33.3 Add a final sentence (starting with a suitable link word or phrase) to each of these texts.

- 1 A: Why do you want to stay in this evening when we could go to Karl's party?
B: Well, for one thing because my ex-boyfriend will be there and I really don't want to see him.
- 2 A: What did you do?
B: First of all we spent a few days in Paris. After that we took the train down to Marseilles and stayed with friends.
- 3 A: Why can't we send one of our staff to the conference?
B: Well, to start with, I don't think that the company should send anyone to the conference. And 33.4 You spent a week at a hotel and had these problems.

- There was very little variety in the food
 - The service was very slow.
- When you mentioned this to the staff, they were very rude.

The manager was on holiday during your stay, so you have decided to send a letter of complaint. Write the next part of this letter and then look at the model answer for the whole letter in the answer key

Dear Sir/Madam

I have just returned from a weekend break at The Royal Malvern Hotel, and I am writing to express my dissatisfaction with the food and service provided in your restaurant.

34 Addition and contrast

A In addition, moreover, etc. (X and Y)

When you add a second piece of information in a sentence to support the first piece of information, you often use and, e.g. The food is excellent and very good value. When you put this information in two sentences, these link words and phrases are common:

The food is usually very good. Furthermore, it is one of the cheapest restaurants in town.
The set menu is £10, which is excellent value. In addition, you get a free glass of wine.
The restaurant has a reputation for excellent food. It's also very good value.
The food is excellent in that restaurant. It's very good value as well (or too).
You get very good food in that place. What's more, it's excellent value.

Note: The first two examples are more formal and more common in written English. The last two examples are more common in spoken English.

B Although, in spite of, etc. (X but Y)

When you want to contrast two pieces of information in a single sentence and say that the second fact is surprising after the first, you can use these link words:

She still won the game although / though / even though she had a bad knee.
They still went for a walk in spite of the fact that it was pouring with rain.
The service is worse despite the fact that they have more staff.

Notes:

In these examples you can also begin the sentence with the link word:

Although she had a bad knee, she still won the game.

It is very common to use still in these sentences to emphasise the surprise (as in examples).

In the last two example sentences you can use a noun or -ing form

They went for a walk in spite of the rain. The service is worse despite having more staff.

After although, you can only have a noun/pronoun + verb (i.e. although she had a bad knee / her knee was bad).

C Whereas

This word is used to connect a fact or opinion about a person, place or thing, with something different about another person, place or thing (you can also use whilst). In other words, the second fact is a contrast with the first, but not always a surprise (as in B above).

John is very careful whereas Christopher makes lots of mistakes.

The south is hot and dry whereas the north gets quite a lot of rain.

D However

You can use however to contrast two ideas in two sentences, and say that the second sentence is surprising after the first (as in B); and you can use however or on the other hand to make a contrast between different people/places or things (as in C above):

I don't agree with a lot of his methods. However, he is a good teacher.

We didn't like the hotel at all. However, we still enjoyed ourselves.

Marcel thought it was a great film. Joe, however / on the other hand, thought it was stupid.

Most big cats, such as tigers and leopards, are very solitary creatures. Lions, however / on the other hand, spend much of their time in groups.

Exercises

34.1 Cross out the incorrect answers. Both answers may be correct.

- 1 Although / in spite of we left late, we still got there in time.
- 2 It was a fantastic evening although / in spite of the terrible food
- 3 We have decided to go in spite of / despite the cost of the tickets.
- 4 They enjoyed the course even though / whereas it was very difficult.
- 5 I love the sea furthermore/whereas most of my friends prefer the mountains.
- 6 We found a lovely villa near the lake that we can rent. In addition / Moreover it has its own swimming pool, and we have free use of a car provided by the owners.
- 7 We both told John the car was too expensive. However / On the other hand, he still decided to buy it.
- 8 Most people we met tried to help us. They were very friendly too / as well
- 9 During the week the town centre is very busy. At the weekend on the other hand / whereas, it is very quiet and almost empty.
- 10 My uncle is the owner of the factory opposite. He also/however runs the restaurant next door and the car hire company down the road.

34.2 Combine parts from each column to form five short texts.

A	B	C
He went to school today	even though	the pay isn't very good.
He always did his best at school	in spite of	he's the most experienced.
He's got the right qualifications.	However	the help I gave him.
He didn't pass the exam	whereas	he didn't feel very well.
He decided to take the job.	What's more	most of his schoolfriends were very lazy.

34.3 Fill the gaps with a suitable link word or phrase.

- 1 taking a map, they still got lost.
- 2 It took me two hours to do it, the others finished in less than an hour.
- 3 The hotel has a very good reputation, it is one of the cheapest in the area.
- 4 She managed to get there she had a broken ankle.

- 5 The exam was very difficult. However,
- 6 Although it was a very long film,

34.5 Answer the questions and test yourself on these different link words and phrases.

- 1 Write down all the link words and phrases from the opposite page that you can remember.
- 2 Organise them into groups according to their meaning.
- 3 Write your own examples for each one and keep them on one page in your notebook. In future, you can add more examples as you meet them.

Similarities, differences and conditions

A Similarities

These are ways of saying that two or more things are similar, or have something the same.
 Peter is similar to (= like) his brother in many ways. Peter and his brother are very similar.
 Peter and his brother are quite alike.
 Maria and Rebecca both passed their exams. (= Maria passed and Rebecca passed)
 But neither wants to go to university. (= Maria doesn't want to go and Rebecca doesn't want to go either)
 The two boys have a lot in common. (= they have many things e.g. hobbies, interests, beliefs, that are the same or very similar) See also section B.

B Differences

These are ways of saying that two or more things are different.
 His early films are different from his later ones.
 Paula is quite unlike (= very different from) her sister.
 They have nothing in common. (= they have no interests or beliefs that are the same)

C Using 'compare'

We want to compare the prices of all the televisions before we decide which one to buy.
 They made a comparison of average salaries in different parts of the country.
 Our new flat is very big compared with/to our old one. (= if you compare it with the other)
 If you compare this one with the others, I'm sure you'll see a difference.

D Exceptions

When we make a general statement about things or people and then say that one thing or person is not included or is different from the others, we use these words and phrases:
 It snowed everywhere except on the west coast.
 The two girls are very similar except that Louise has slightly longer hair.
 The museum is open every day except (for) / apart from Sunday(s).
 Everyone heard the fire alarm except (for) / apart from the two boys in room 7
Note: Except can be followed by different words (nouns, prepositions, etc.), but except for and apart from are followed by nouns or noun phrases.

E Conditions

Here are some words/phrases which introduce or connect conditions. Like 'if', they are used with certain tenses, and the rules are quite difficult. For the moment, notice the tenses underlined in the examples, and use them in the same way until you meet other examples.
 We will be late unless we hurry. (= we'll be late if we don't hurry)
Unless the weather improves (= if the weather doesn't improve), we won't be able to go.
 I must go now otherwise (= because if I don't) I'll miss the last bus.
 You can borrow it as long as (= on condition that) you bring it back by Thursday.
Note: The meaning is very similar to if here, but the use of as long as shows that the condition is very important to the speaker.
 Take your umbrella with you in case it rains. (= because of the possibility it may rain later)
 I brought food in case we get hungry. (= because of the possibility we may be hungry later)

Exercises

35.1 Read the information, then complete the sentences using the words/phrases from A and B

- 5 I'm not going to work on Saturday unless
- 6 I'm going to take my cheque book with me in case

35.5 How many different sentences can you write beginning with these words?

Compared with Britain, my country

36 Reason, purpose and result

A Reason

I went home early because/as/since I was feeling a bit tired.

Note: With as or since, the reason (in this example 'feeling tired') is often known to the listener or reader, so it is less important. It is also common to put as/since at the beginning of the sentence: 'As/since I was feeling tired, I went home early'. In spoken English, many native speakers would use so after the reason: I was feeling a bit tired, so I went home early.

We can also use because of, but with a different construction. Compare:

We always go there because the weather is absolutely wonderful. (because + noun + verb)

We always go there because of the wonderful weather. (because of + (adjective) + noun)

Due to and owing to have the same meaning as because of, but they are more formal, and are often used in sentences which explain the reason for a problem:

The plane was late due to bad weather. (due to is often used after the verb 'to be')

Due to / Owing to the power cut last night, I missed the late film on TV.

B 'Cause' and 'result' verbs

There are some verbs which we can use in similar ways to the words above:

Police think the bus caused the accident. (= was responsible for the accident)

The extra investment should lead to more jobs. (= result in more jobs)

'Cause' and 'result' verbs sometimes appear together in this way:

Police think that a cigarette caused the fire which resulted in the destruction of the building.

C Purpose

A 'purpose' is an intention, an aim or a reason for doing something.

The purpose of buying this book was to improve my English.

But we often introduce a purpose using so (that):

I bought this book so (that) I can improve my English.

They went home early so (that) they could watch the match on television.

We moved house so (that) we could send our children to this school.

Note: In spoken English, people often just say so (without that). It is also very common (as in the examples) to use a modal verb, e.g. can or could, after so that.

D Result

These words introduce a result:

I left the ticket at home, so I'm afraid I had to buy another one.

I forgot to send the letters. Consequently, some people didn't know about the meeting.

She was extremely hard-working and therefore deserved the promotion.

Both the manager and his assistant were ill. As a result, there was no-one to take decisions.

Note: So is the most common, and usually links ideas in a single sentence. As a result and consequently are more formal, and usually connect ideas in two separate sentences (as in the examples). Therefore (also more formal), can be used in a single sentence (as in the example), but may also connect two sentences.

Exercises

36.1 Combine the two sentences into one sentence using so, so that, because, as, or since. More than one answer is possible in some sentences.

- 4 I stayed at home. I was expecting a phone call.

- 6 I learned to drive. My mother didn't have to take me to the riding school every week.

38 Weather

A Weather conditions

Look at this list of common weather words. Notice that it is very common to form adjectives by adding '-y'.

Noun	Adjective	Noun	Adjective
sun	sunny	wind	windy
cloud	cloudy	ice	ic(e)y
fog	foggy	shower	showery
heat	hot	humidity	humid

Note: When it rains for a short period of time, we call it a shower, e.g. We had several showers yesterday afternoon.

When it is raining a lot we often say it's pouring or it's pouring with rain. This phrase is much more common than 'it's raining cats and dogs', which many students seem to learn.

B Temperature

thermometer

boiling hot warm not very warm cold freezing
(= very hot) (also chilly) (= very cold)

People round the world have different ideas about temperature.

5°C (five degrees centigrade) is freezing for many Brazilians.

-10°C (minus ten degrees or ten degrees below zero) is very cold but quite normal in the mountains in Switzerland during the winter when it usually snows a lot.

30-35°C is boiling for England and very unusual, but it is very common in parts of Spain during the summer.

C Wind

The first word here is very gentle; the last is more than 100 km per hour and can be very dangerous.

a breeze a wind a strong wind a gale a hurricane

It was a hot day but there was a lovely breeze.

The wind blew my hat off.

The hurricane in Florida destroyed trees and buildings.

D Thunderstorms

A spell (= period) of very hot weather often ends with a thunderstorm. First it becomes very humid (= hot and wet), then you get thunder and lightning, and finally, very heavy rain (= it pours with rain). Afterwards, it is usually cooler and it feels fresher.

Exercises

Write a paragraph about the weather in your own country, or a specific part of your country, e.g. your own region. Try to use as many words as possible from the opposite page.

39 Using the land

A Ground and soil

When we walk, our feet are on the ground (= the general word for the surface of the earth). For the top part of the ground where grass and flowers grow, we use the word soil.

There were no seats in the park, so we had to sit on the ground.

The ground is very hard because it hasn't rained for weeks.

Plants don't grow very well here because the soil is too dry.

B Above the ground

Some land is used for parks and gardens where we often grow trees and plants (= living things with roots and leaves, smaller than trees which grow in the soil). First, you plant the tree or plant (= put the tree or plant in the ground), then you must water it (= give it water).

Land in the country is often used for agriculture/farming. Some farms concentrate on dairy produce such as milk, butter and cheese. Other farms keep animals which are slaughtered (= killed) and sold for their meat, e.g. cows and lambs. Some farms use the land to grow fruit, e.g. apples and pears, vegetables, e.g. potatoes and carrots, and cereals, e.g. wheat, maize and barley. When they are ready, farmers pick the fruit and harvest the other crops (= take the other crops from the ground). This period is called the harvest. We use the word crop(s) as a general word to describe all the things that are grown to be eaten:

In parts of Africa the crops failed because of the drought (= long period without rain).

We had a wonderful crop of barley last year.

C Below the ground

One of the main activities below the ground is mining. This is the process of extracting (fm1) (= removing or taking out) different materials, e.g. coal or gold, from below the ground. We call the place a mine, e.g. a coal mine or gold mine.

These are some of the metals we take out of the ground:

gold: a valuable yellow metal used to make coins and jewellery silver: a valuable whitish metal used to make coins and jewellery iron: usually takes the form of a hard dark-grey metal, and is used in building and to make tools. It is also used to make steel tin: a softer metal often used to cover other metals copper: a soft reddish metal; it permits heat and electricity to pass through it easily

Exercises

|-------------|--------|
| 1 plant | coal |

- What are some of the main crops grown in your country?

40 Animals and insects

A Pets and farm animals

Many people keep pets (= domestic animals that live with people) in Britain. The most common are dogs and cats, but children in particular sometimes keep mice (singular = a mouse) and rabbits.

Farm animals include: sheep, pigs, cows, horses, chickens and goats.

Note: The word 'sheep' is the singular and plural form i.e. a sheep or some sheep. A young sheep is called a lamb.

B Wild animals

In a zoo or in the wild, you will find these wild animals.

C Common insects

Here are some common insects.

42 The body and what it does

A Parts of the body

Learn the parts of the body that you don't already know.

B Physical actions

You can breathe through your nose or your mouth. Most people breathe about 12–15 times a minute. People smile when they're happy, or to be polite; they laugh when people say something funny; they may cry when they're sad; they yawn when they're tired, or bored. Many people nod their head to mean 'yes', and shake their head when they mean 'no'. When you pick up something heavy, you must bend your knees and keep your back straight.

C Common expressions

comb your hair

Exercises

43 Describing people's appearance

A General

Positive: beautiful is generally used to describe women; handsome is used to describe men; good-looking is used for both; pretty is another positive word to describe a woman (often a girl) meaning 'attractive and nice to look at'

Negative: ugly is the most negative word to describe someone; plain is more polite.

B Height and build tall and slim

medium height and build short and fat

medium height and very muscular

Note: Another word for slim is thin, but slim has a more positive meaning, e.g. John is lovely and slim, but his brother is terribly thin. Skinny also has the same meaning but is very negative. It is not very polite to say someone is fat; overweight is more neutral and polite.

C Hair

wavy

curly

D Special features

The man on the left has got very pale skin (= white skin). He also has broad shoulders, with a small scar at the top of his left arm. The other man has dark skin. He also has a beard and moustache and quite a hairy chest and a tattoo.

E Asking questions about a person's appearance

Q: What does she look like?

A: She's quite tall, with short fair hair.

Q: How tall is she?

A: About 1 metre 65.

Q: How much does she weigh?

A: I don't know and it may be rude to ask. Probably about 45 kilos.

- 9 Do you like beards?
- 10 Can you think of a famous woman you would describe as beautiful, and a famous man you would describe as good-looking?

If possible, ask another person these questions.

44 Describing character

A Opposites

Many positive words describing character have clear opposites with a negative meaning.

Positive	Negative
warm and friendly	cold and unfriendly kind	unkind
nice, pleasant	horrible, unpleasant
generous (= happy to give/share)	mean (= never gives to others)
optimistic (= thinks positively)	pessimistic (= thinks negatively)
cheerful (= happy and smiling)	miserable (= always seems unhappy) relaxed and easy-going	tense (= nervous; worries a lot; not calm) strong	weak
sensitive	insensitive (= does not think about others' feelings)
honest (= always tells the truth)	dishonest

Jane is very tense at the moment because of her exams, but she's usually quite relaxed and easy-going about most things.

I think the weather influences me a lot: when it's sunny I feel more cheerful and optimistic; but when it's cold and raining I get very miserable.

He seemed a bit unfriendly at first, but now I've got to know him I realise he's very warm and kind.

The shop assistant told me that the dress I tried on looked better on people younger than me. I thought that was very insensitive of her, but at least she was being honest, I suppose.

B Character in action

People often talk about qualities of character that you may need in a work situation. Again, some of these words come in pairs of opposites: one positive and one negative.

Positive	Negative
hard-working	lazy (= never does any work) punctual (=always on time)	not very punctual; always late reliable	unreliable (= you cannot trust / depend on someone like this) clever, bright (informal)	stupid, thick (informal) flexible	inflexible (= a very fixed way of thinking; unable to change)
ambitious	unambitious (= no desire to be successful and get a better job)

Some pairs of opposites do not have a particularly positive or negative meaning:

He is very shy when you first meet him because he finds it difficult to talk to people and make conversation; but when he knows people quite well he's much more self-confident.

People often say the British are very reserved (= do not show their feelings), but when you get to know them they can be very emotional like anyone else.

C Using nouns

Some important qualities are expressed through nouns.

One of her great qualities is that she uses her initiative. (= she can think for herself and take the necessary action; she does not need to wait for orders all the time)

That boy has got no common sense (= he does stupid things and doesn't think what he is doing). His sister, on the other hand, is very sensible (= has lots of common sense)

Exercises

44.1 Organise these words into pairs of opposites and put them in the columns below.

mean	clever	nice	lazy	relaxed	hard-working tense	cheerful	generous	unpleasant	stupid	miserable

Positive

Negative

44.2 What prefix forms the opposite of each of these words? (You need three different prefixes.)

kind	flexible	friendly	honest
reliable	sensitive	ambitious	pleasant

44.3 How would you describe the person in each of these descriptions?

- 1 He never bought me a drink all the time we were together.
- 2 I have to tell her what to do every minute of the working day. She wouldn't even open a window without someone's permission.
- 3 He often promises to do things but half the time he forgets.
- 4 She's always here on time.
- 5 I don't think he's done any work since he's been here.
- 6 She finds it difficult to meet people and talk to strangers.
- 7 He could work in any of the departments, and it doesn't matter to him if he's on his own or part of a team.
- 8 One of the great things about her is that she's so aware of what other people think or feel.
- 9 Bob, on the other hand, is the complete opposite. He is always making people angry or upset because he just doesn't consider their feelings.
- 10 The other thing about Bob is that he really wants to get the supervisor's job and then become boss for the whole department.

44.4 What nouns can be formed from these adjectives? Use a dictionary to help you.

Example: kind kindness

punctual	optimistic	reliable	lazy confident	generous	ambitious	stupid
sensitive	strong	flexible	shy

44.5 Choose three words from the opposite page which describe you. Is there one quality you do not have but would like to have? What, in your opinion, is the worst quality described on the opposite page? If possible, compare your answers with a friend.

Exercises

45.1 What nouns can be formed from these adjectives?

angry sad happy proud jealous embarrassed

| 5 He was very sad when | e he bought her a birthday present on the wrong day. |
| 6 He was very frightened when | f his best friend went out with the girl he really liked |

45.3 Answer these questions. If possible, ask someone else the same questions.

- Would you feel embarrassed or upset (or both) if you forgot your mother's birthday or your father's birthday?
- Do you ever feel frightened in a car (as a passenger) because you are going very fast?
- Do you get angry when other people want you to do things that you don't want to do?

Family and friends

A Relatives (= members of your family)

These are the most important relatives (also called relations):

	male	female
Your parents' parents	grandfather	grandmother
Your parents' brother and sister	uncle(s)	aunt(s)
Your aunt's/uncle's children	cousin(s)	cousin(s)
The father and mother of the person you marry	father-in-law	mother-in-law
The brother and sister of the person you marry	brother-in-law	sister-in-law
Your brother's/sister's children	nephew(s)	niece(s)
The person you marry dies, so you are a ...	widower	widow
Your mother or father remarries, so you have a ...	step-father	step-mother

B Family background (= family history)

My grandfather was a market gardener in Ireland. He grew flowers, fruit and vegetables, and sold them in the market every day. He worked hard all his life, and when he died, his son (now my uncle) and daughter (my mother) inherited a large house and garden (= received this house and garden from my grandfather when he died). They carried on the business together until my mother met my father. They got married, moved to England, and I was born two years later. They didn't have any more children, so I am an only child.

C Family names

When you are born, your family gives you a first name, e.g. James, Kate, Sarah and Alex are common first names in Britain. Your family name (also called your surname) is the one that all the family share e.g. Smith, Brown, Jones, and O'Neill are common surnames in Britain. Some parents give their children a middle name (like a first name), but you do not usually say this name. Your full name is all the names you have, e.g. Sarah Jane Smith.

D Changing times

Society changes and so do families. In some places, people may decide to live together but do not get married. They are not husband and wife, but call each other the partner. There are also many families in some parts of the world where the child or children live with just their mother or father; these are sometimes called single-parent families.

E Friends

We can use a number of adjectives before friend

an old friend (= someone you have known for a long time)

a close friend (= a good friend, someone you like and trust) your best friend (= the one friend you feel closest to)

We use the word colleagues to describe the people we work with.

F Ex-

We use this for a husband/wife/boyfriend/girlfriend we had in the past but do not have now

The children stay with my ex-husband at the weekend.

I saw an ex-girlfriend of mine at the disco last night.

48 Daily routines

A Sleep

During the week I usually wake up at 6.30 a.m. I sometimes lie in bed for five minutes but then I have to get up (= get out of bed and get dressed). Most evenings, I go to bed at about 11.30 p.m. I'm usually very tired, so I go to sleep / fall asleep very quickly. Occasionally though, I can't get to sleep (= succeed in sleeping). When that happens, I sometimes manage to fall asleep about 3 a.m., then I oversleep (= sleep too long) in the morning. If I have a late night (= go to bed very late, ≠ an early night), I try to have a nap (= a short sleep, e.g. 20–25 minutes) in the afternoon. The weekends are different. On Saturday and Sunday I have a lie-in. (= stay in bed until later, e.g. 8 a.m. or 8.30 a.m.)

B Food

In the week I have breakfast at 7.30 a.m., lunch at 1.00 p.m., and dinner around 7 p.m. I also have one or two snacks (= small amounts of food), e.g. cakes, biscuits or fruit, during the day at work. As I live alone / on my own / by myself (= without other people), I also have to make my own breakfast and dinner (= prepare breakfast and dinner for myself), but during the week I don't bother (= make an effort) to cook very much. I also have to feed (= give food to) my two cats twice a day as well.

Note: With breakfast, lunch or dinner in general, there is no definite article (the).

C Keeping clean

In the summer I have a shower in the morning, but in the winter I often have a bath instead (= in place of a shower). Sometimes I have a shave at the same time, or I shave when I have a wash and clean/brush my teeth after breakfast. I wash my hair two or three times a week.

Note: In some contexts, it is more common in English to use have + noun than a single verb, e.g. I'm going to have a wash. [~~NOT I'm going to wash~~]

D Work

In the morning I leave home about 8.15 a.m. and get to work (= arrive at work) by 9 a.m. I have a lunch break (= stop work for lunch) from 1–2 p.m., and a couple of short breaks during the day. I leave work around 5.30 p.m. and get home about 6.15 p.m.

E Evenings

During the week I usually stay in (= stay at home) and have a rest (= relax and do nothing). But at the weekend I often go out (= leave the house for social reasons, e.g. go to the cinema or disco with friends), but quite often I also have friends for dinner (= invite friends to my house and cook dinner for them), or friends just come round (= visit me at the house) for a chat (infml) (= conversation), or we play cards, e.g. poker or bridge.

F Housework

I do the shopping (= buy the food) on Saturday. Fortunately (= luckily) I have a cleaner (= a person who cleans) and she does most of the housework: she does my washing (= washes the clothes), the washing-up (= washes the dishes) and does most of the ironing.

49 Homes and buildings

A Houses

B Flats

I live in a block of flats.

My brother lives on the ground floor, and I have a flat on the third floor.

Unfortunately there is no lift, so I have to climb three flights of stairs to reach my flat. But I do have a balcony with a wonderful view of the park opposite the flats.

Note: Steps are usually outside a building or inside a public building; they are stone or wooden. Stairs (pl) connect floors inside a building and are often covered with a carpet.

C Buying and renting

Some people buy a flat or house (= they own it / it belongs to them). When they do this in Britain, people usually borrow money from a bank or an organisation called a Building Society. This money, which is called a mortgage, is often paid back over 25 years.

Other people rent a house or flat (= they pay money every week or month to the person who owns the house). When they do this, the money they pay is called the rent, and the person who owns the house or flat is the landlord.

D Describing a flat or house

The rooms on the ground floor are quite dark (\neq light) because they don't get (= receive) very much sun. They are also quite noisy (\neq quiet) because they are near the roads and the traffic. The other negative thing is that the rooms are draughty (= cold air comes into the room through the windows and under the doors because they don't fit very well). This means it is expensive to heat the rooms (= to keep the rooms warm). Fortunately I have a very good central heating system. In other words, it is also very nice: it's in good condition (in a good state/doesn't need to be repaired; \neq in bad condition), and the rooms are huge/enormous (= very, very big; \neq tiny / very, very small).

C Housework (U)

My room is very clean and tidy (= everything in order), but my brother is very untidy; he leaves his clothes all over the floor and never makes his bed. What's worse, he doesn't clean his room very often, so most of the time it is quite dirty.

I do the washing-up every evening after dinner, and I normally do the washing and ironing at the weekend when I have a bit more free time. I also Hoover the carpets and polish the dining room table once a week.

52 Everyday problems

A There's something wrong with ...

If there is a problem with a machine or a thing that you use e.g. TV, light, washing machine, computer, food mixer, pen, etc., we often use these expressions:

There's something wrong with the TV. (= there is a problem with it)

The light's not working. (= not functioning / there is no light)

The shower's not working properly. (= it is functioning but not very well)

The telephone is out of order (= not in use / not functioning)

Note: The phrase out of order is often used when a public machine or piece of equipment isn't working, e.g. public telephone, public toilet, drinks machine at a station, etc.

B In the home

Yesterday morning Paul had a lot of problems.

He dropped a cup and it broke

He got another cup, made a coffee, and then spilt it.

It ruined (= destroyed) his T-shirt because there was a large stain on it.

He decided to make some toast, but he burnt the first piece (if you burn something, you damage it with fire), then realised he'd run out of bread (= the bread was finished / there was no more bread). He did not leave home in a good mood (= feeling very happy).

C Out and about

After Paul went out, things got worse. He left home with a ten-pound note in his pocket, and walked to the bus stop. Unfortunately he was a bit late and the bus was a bit early, so he missed the bus. While he waited for the next one, he got out his walkman, but the batteries had run out (= the batteries were finished). When the bus arrived, he got on and put his hand in his pocket – no ten-pound note (he had lost his money). The driver told him to get off. He didn't want to be late for school, so he started running. Moments later, he saw a dog, but not its lead – and tripped over the lead.

He got to his feet, carried on to school, then he realised he had left his bag on the bus.

Note: Students often say 'he forgot his bag on the bus' in this situation. In English, we must use the verb leave if we say where something is. For example:

I've forgotten my bag; but I left my bag on the bus.

I have to deal with any complaints (= take all necessary action if there are complaints).

I run the coffee bar and restaurant in the museum (= I am in control of it / I manage it).

Note: We often use responsible for / in charge of for part of something, e.g. a department or some of the workers; and run for control of all of something, e.g. a company or a shop.

Daily duties/routines

I have to go to / attend (fmil) a lot of meetings.

I visit/see/meet clients (= people I do business with or for).

I advise clients (= give them help and my opinion).

It involves doing quite a lot of paperwork (a general word we use for routine work that involves paper e.g. writing letters, filling in forms, etc.). Note the -ing form after involve.

C Pay

Most workers are paid (= receive money) every month and this pay goes directly into their bank account. It is called a salary. We can express the same idea using the verb to earn.

My salary is $60,000 a year. (= I earn $60,000 a year.)

With many jobs you get (= receive) holiday pay and sick pay (when you are ill). If you want to ask about holidays, you can say:

How much holiday do you get? or How many weeks' holiday do you get?

The total amount of money you receive in a year is called your income. This could be your salary from one job, or the salary from two different jobs you have. And on this income you have to pay part to the government – called income tax.

D Working hours

For many people in Britain, these are 8.30–9.00 a.m. to 5.00–5.30 p.m. Consequently people often talk about a nine-to-five job (= regular working hours). Some people have flexi-time (= they can start an hour or so earlier or finish later); and some have to do shiftwork (= working at different times, e.g. days one week and nights the next week). Some people also work overtime (= work extra hours). Some people are paid to do/work overtime, others are not paid.

Exercises

63.1 Match the verbs on the left with the nouns or phrases on the right. Use each word once only.

- | | |
|-------------|------------|

The career ladder

A Getting a job

When Paul left school he applied for (= wrote an official request for) a job in the accounts department of a local engineering company. They gave him a job as a trainee (= a very junior person in a company). He didn't earn very much but they gave him a lot of training (= organised help and advice with learning the job), and sent him on training courses.

Note. Training is an uncountable noun, so you cannot say 'a training'. You can only talk about training (in general), or a training course (if you want to refer to just one). Here you can use the verbs do or go on: I did / went on several training courses last year.

B Moving up

Paul worked hard at the company and his prospects (= future possibilities in the job) looked good. After his first year he got a good pay rise (= more money), and after two years he was promoted (= given a higher position with more money and responsibility). After six years he was in charge of (= responsible for / the boss of) the accounts department with five other employees (= workers in the company) under him (= under his responsibility/authority).

C Leaving the company

By the time Paul was 30, however, he decided he wanted a fresh challenge (= a new exciting situation). He was keen to work abroad, so he resigned from his company (= officially told the company he was leaving his job; you can also say 'he quit the company') and started looking for a new job with a bigger company. After a couple of months he managed to find a job with an international company which involved (= included) a lot of foreign travel. He was very excited about the new job and at first he really enjoyed the travelling, but .

D Hard times

After about six months, Paul started to dislike the constant moving around, and after a year he hated it; he hated living in hotels, and he never really made any friends in the new company. Unfortunately his work was not satisfactory either and finally he was sacked (= told to leave the company / dismissed / given the sack) a year later.

After that, Paul found things much more difficult. He was unemployed (= out of work / without a job) for over a year. He had to sell his car and move out of his new house. Things were looking bad and in the end Paul had to accept a part time job (= working only some of the day or some of the week) on a fruit and vegetable stall in a market.

E Happier times

To his surprise, Paul loved the market. He made lots of friends and enjoyed working out in the open air. After two years, he took over (= took control of) the stall. Two years later he opened a second stall, and after ten years he had fifteen stalls. Last year Paul retired (= stopped working completely) at the age of 55, a very rich man.

Exercises

65.1 Write a single word synonym for each of these words/phrases.

- 1 given the sack =
- 2 out of work =

66 In the office and in the factory

A The office

B Office work

Brenda works for a company which produces furniture. She works in an office, which is just opposite the factory where the furniture is made. This is how she spends her day:

She works at a computer most of the time, where she writes letters and reports.

She answers phone calls, mostly from retailers. (= shops selling the factory's furniture)

She makes phone calls to retailers, and the factory making the furniture.

She sends invoices to customers. (= paper showing products sold and the money to pay)

She shows visitors around the factory.

She does general paperwork, e.g. filing reports, writing memos, answering letters.

She arranges meetings for her boss and other managers in the company.

C The 'shop floor' of the factory

This is where products are manufactured (= made). Modern factories have fewer workers than in the past – this is because of automation (= machines do most of the work), and most factories use an assembly line (= an arrangement in which each worker makes a part of the product and then passes it on to the next person or machine). On an assembly line, workers fit/assemble the different parts, and supervisors (= people in charge/control) check/inspect/examine each stage to make sure the product meets the required standard (= is good enough).

D Finished goods

Goods (pl) is the general word used for things that are made to be sold. When the product, e.g. a radio, is finished, it is packaged (= put in plastic and then in a box) and stored (= kept) in a warehouse. When a customer, e.g. an electrical shop, orders some of these goods, they are delivered to the shop (= taken to the shop) using road or rail.

- 2 She has to check the goods when they come off the assembly .
- 3 I'm sure I took the reports out of the filing and put them in my brief .
- 4 It's a very boring job and I spend most of my time doing general paper .
- 5 I threw all that stuff in the wastepaper .

66.3 What words from the opposite page are being defined here?

- 1 The place where you store finished products before they are sold.
- 2 The process of using machines to do work that used to be done by men and women.
- 3 A plural noun for things that are made to be sold.
- 4 A thing you often hang on the wall, which tells you the date.
- 5 A book where you often write down all your appointments and things you have to do
- 6 A piece of paper which shows the products that a customer bought and the money they have to pay.

- 2 I help them to assemble the different parts.
- 3 The supervisor always inspects our work carefully
- 4 When the books are printed they are kept in the warehouse.

67 Business and finance

A Banks and businesses

Most businesses need to borrow money to finance (= pay for) investments (= things they need to buy in order to help the company, e.g. machines). The money they borrow from the bank is called a loan, and on this loan they have to pay interest, e.g. if you borrow £1,000 and the interest rate is 10%, then you have to pay back £1,000, plus £100 in interest.

B Businesses and profit

One of the main aims/objectives (= the things that you hope to do/achieve) of a company is to make a profit (= earn/receive more money than it spends) (≠ make a loss). If a company does not make a profit or a loss, it breaks even.

Most companies are happy if they can break even in their first year of business.

Companies receive money from selling their products – this money is called the turnover. The money that they spend is called the expenditure (/ml/). They spend money on these things: raw materials (= materials in their natural state used to make something else, e.g. coal and oil are important raw materials used to make plastics); labour (= employees); overheads (= necessary costs for a company, e.g. rent for buildings, electricity, telephone).

C Rise and fall

Business people often need to talk about the movement of sales, prices, interest rates, profit and loss, etc. Here are some of the words used to describe these trends (= movements):

Note: rise, increase, and fall are also used as nouns: a slow rise in interest rates, a steady increase in sales, a sharp fall in profits, a dramatic (= sharp) rise in inflation. We can also use be up/down: prices are up by 10%; profits are down by £2m.

D Businesses and the economy

In order to grow/expand (= get bigger) and thrive/prosper (= do well / be successful), many companies want or need the following:

low inflation, so prices do not go up low interest rates, so the company can borrow money without paying a lot of interest economic and political stability (= things remain steady and stable and there are no sudden changes in the economic and political situation)

a healthy/strong economy (= in good condition), and not an economy in recession (= in a period of reduced and slow business activity) tax cuts (= tax reductions / lower taxes), so they can keep more of their profit. This often depends on government expenditure, e.g. The government will not be able to reduce taxes if public expenditure continues to rise.

Exercises

67.1 What single word or phrase is being defined in each of these sentences?

- 1 Money you borrow from a bank for your business.
- 2 What you must pay the bank if you borrow money.
- 3 The continuous increase in the price of things
- 4 The things you hope to do/achieve within a period of time.
- 5 When a company does not make a profit or a loss.
- 6 When an economy is in a period of reduced and slow business activity.

- 3 What is the state of the economy at the moment? Is it strong? Is it in recession?
- 4 Do you think businesses are optimistic about the future?
- 5 Has the government reduced company taxes or personal taxes in the last twelve months?
- 6 Has public expenditure risen or fallen in the last twelve months?

Sales and marketing

A What is marketing?

People talk about the marketing mix. This consists of (= it is formed from and includes):
 choosing the right product (= what a company produces/makes or offers) selling it at the right price (= what it costs to the buyer/consumer) using the right kind of promotion (= the ways to make the product popular and well known, this includes advertising) making it available in the right place (= where you sell the product and how it reaches the consumer; also known as distribution)

This 'mix' is often referred to as the four Ps, and marketing people have the job of matching these things to the needs of consumers (= the people who buy and use products). People who buy the products of a particular company are that company's customers/clients.

B 'Sales' and 'market'

C Competition

Ford Motors is the market leader in the UK car industry. Its main competitors (= the most important companies in the same market) are Vauxhall and Rover, and it has had to work very hard in recent years to maintain its market share. Every time a competitor launches a new product (= introduces a new car onto the market), it is harder for Ford to stay in front.

D A company's image

The image of a product/company (= the picture or idea that people have of the product/company) is very important in sales and marketing. Some companies want a fashionable image (= modern and up-to-date), others do not. For example:

mass-produced (= made in large numbers), reliable (= you can trust it), good value (= good for the money) functional but boring.

young; exciting, glamorous (= exciting + attractive); often fashionable, dangerous; not very practical.

high quality (= high standard/very good), luxury (= expensive and giving great comfort), high status/prestige (= important; driven by important people).

7 Sport 2: winning, losing, and scoring

A Winning and losing

Notice how these key words are used:

Spain beat Switzerland 3–2. (= Switzerland lost to Spain 3–2) In other words:

Spain won the match. (= Switzerland lost the match)

Spain defeated Switzerland. (= Switzerland were defeated by Spain)

Spain were the winners. (= Switzerland were the losers)

If both teams or players have the same score (= number of goals or points), it is a draw (e.g. 2–2 is a draw). We can also use draw as a verb, e.g. we drew yesterday's match/game 2–2.

Note. A match is used for an organised game: We had a game of football with a few friends in the park, but we've got an important match against a very good team next week.

When the game is still in progress, we often use the verb lead to describe the position of the teams and players, or latest to describe the score:

HALF TIME SCORE: SPAIN 2 SWITZERLAND 1

At half time, Spain are leading Switzerland two–one. (= the latest score is two–one to Spain)

Sampras is leading three–two in the first set. (= the latest score is three–two to Sampras)

B What's the score?

In most games you score goals (e.g. football, hockey) or points (e.g. table tennis, basketball). At the end of the game there is a result (= players/teams win, lose, or draw). However, the scoring system – and the way we describe it – is different from game to game.

Football

Spain 0–0 Italy (we say nil–nil)

Spain 1–0 Italy (one–nil to Spain)

Spain 1–1 Italy (one–all)

Spain 1–2 Italy (two–one to Italy)

Spain 2–2 Italy (two–all)

If the final score is 2–2 in a cup match, you may have to play extra time. And if the score is still 2–2 at the end of extra time, there is a penalty shoot-out.

Tennis

15–0 (fifteen–love)

30–0 (thirty–love)

30–30 (thirty–all)

40–40 (deuce) [pronounced like 'juice']

Advantage X

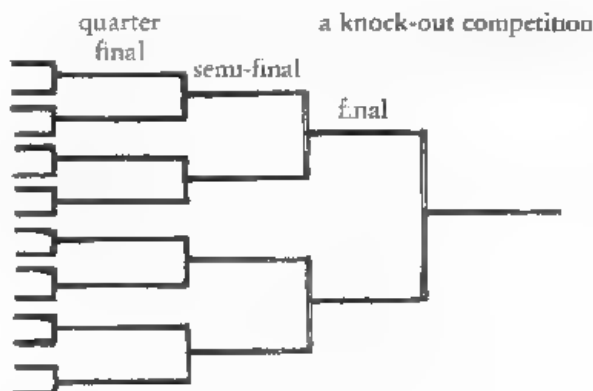

Game X

Game and set to X (e.g. 6–3 or 7–5)

If the score reaches 6–6 you have a tie break to decide the set.

C Competitions

In many sports, players and teams play every week in a league (the player/team that wins the most games in a season is the winner of the league championship). In most sports, there is also a cup competition, which is usually a knock-out competition.

These exercises also revise some vocabulary from the previous unit.

This was the fourth time that Brazil had ⁽⁶⁾ the World Cup.

- She sprinted away from the rest of the field on the final lap and won easily.

72 Cinema and theatre

A Theatre

At the theatre you can see plays, e.g. Hamlet by Shakespeare, or musicals, e.g. Phantom of the Opera by Andrew Lloyd Webber. In a play the cast (= the total number of actors) is usually quite small, but musicals often have a very large cast.

One difference between the theatre and cinema is that you usually book (= reserve) tickets in advance (= some time before the actual performance) if you are going to the theatre. Another difference is that the audience (= the people watching the play/musical) clap at the end of the performance. This does not usually happen (in Britain) at the end of a film.

B Cinema

Plays are performed on stage, films are shown on screen. In your country, films in English are either shown with subtitles (= there is a translation across the bottom of the screen), or they are dubbed (= the English is removed and replaced by actors speaking in your own language).

Films are set (= take place) in many different periods and places, e.g. Room with a View is set in the early part of the 20th century; Blade Runner is set in the future. And when people talk about films, they often talk about the director, e.g. Spielberg, Bertolucci; and the stars, the most important actors and actresses, e.g. Tom Hanks and Jodie Foster.

C Types of film

western: a film about America in the 19th century; often with cowboys and Indians war film, e.g. Born on the 4th of July action film, e.g. Indiana Jones horror film, e.g. Dracula; Frankenstein comedy: a funny film that makes you laugh science fiction film: about the future thriller: an exciting story often about a crime

D Describing plays and films

Journalists write articles in which they give their opinion of new films and plays. They are called critics, and their articles are called reviews. These are some words they may use:

moving: producing strong emotions, often of sadness; a positive word violent: includes lots of scenes with fighting and death powerful: has a big effect on our emotions gripping: exciting and very interesting good fun: used to describe a film that may not be very serious or important but is enjoyable slow: boring

Exercises

- 1 Did you sit in the stalls or circle?
- 2 Which row were you in?
- 3 Were you next to an aisle?
- 4 Did you have a good view of the stage?

72.2 What word or phrase is being defined?

- 1 A play or film in which part of the story is sung to music.
- 2 The total number of actors in a play or film.
- 3 The people who watch a play at the theatre.

- 7 The name of the articles they write
- 8 The translation of the story of a film across the bottom of the screen.
- 9 To reserve tickets before the performance.
- 10 The most important actors or actresses in a film.

Some newspapers are tabloids (= small in size) e.g. The Mirror; others are called broadsheets (= larger in size) e.g. The Times. A: Hello.

B: Is that Mary? [~~NOT Are you Mary? or Is it Mary?~~]

A: Yeah.

B: Hi. It's Ruth. [~~NOT I am Ruth, or Here is Ruth~~]

Note: When British people answer the phone at home they usually just say 'hello' and sometimes they also give their number. They do not give their name.

C: Good morning. Chalfont Electronics

D: Oh good morning. Could I speak to Mrs Gordon, please?

C: Yes. Who's calling, please?

D: My name is Paul Scott. (This is usually how you introduce yourself in a formal situation.)

C: Right, Mr Scott. I'll put you through. (= I will connect you with Mrs Gordon)

B Telephone problems

4.35 p.m. You get through to your sister's number (= make contact) but she's out (= not at home). Her husband answers and says that Susan won't be back (= will not return) for a couple of hours, so you leave a message, e.g. Could you ask Susan to ring me when she gets back? The husband agrees to give Susan the message.

7.30 p.m. Susan phones you back but you are out. She leaves a message on your answerphone. Her message is: Jean, this is Susan. I'm just returning your call (= phone call). I'll give you a ring (= phone you) tomorrow.

C Useful vocabulary

A reverse charge call (AmEng = collect call). This is when the person you ring agrees to pay for the phone call. If you make a reverse charge call, you must go through the operator. If you have someone's name and address, you can call Directory Enquiries to get their phone number. If you phone another town or city, you need to know the code, e.g. the code for Cambridge is 01223. This type of call is a long distance call (≠ a local call).

Make sure you make a back up copy of your work (= an extra copy on a floppy disk).

Exercises

77.1 Add another word, abbreviation, or part of a word, to complete common 'computer' words and phrases.

- | | |
|---------------------|----------------|
| 1 soft . | 7 a computer |
| 2 a word | 8 -ROM |
| 3 floppy . | 9 laser |
| 4 ... -friendly | 10 lap |
| 5 . . . , -literate | 11 spread |
| 6 key. . . . | 12 -mail |

77.2 Can you remember what these symbols mean?

77.3 Complete this text about using a computer for word processing.

I wrote a report on the ⁽¹⁾_____ this morning. When I finished, I ⁽²⁾_____ out two copies – one for me and one for my boss. Then, without any warning, the computer went ⁽³⁾_____, and I'm afraid I lost the whole document. This is very unusual because normally ⁽⁴⁾_____ the data while I'm writing and then make a ⁽⁵⁾_____ copy when I have finished. This morning I forgot.

Anyway, I gave the report to my boss, hoping that she would not ask me to change it in any way. She did. She thought it was a bit long and said it would be better if I used more ⁽⁶⁾_____ to illustrate some of the written information. She also thought it would make the report look more attractive.

I went back and rewrote most of the report when the computer was OK, only I ⁽⁷⁾_____ part of the middle section which was rather repetitive, and I added extra ⁽⁸⁾_____ as my boss advised. It did look better by the time I'd finished and this time I remembered to ⁽⁹⁾_____ it and make a ⁽¹⁰⁾_____ copy.

77.4 Answer these questions. If possible, ask someone else the same questions.

- 1 Do you have a computer at home? If so, what is it?
- 2 Do you use computers at school/college/university/work? If so, what type?
- 3 What do you use them for?
- 4 Would you say you are computer-literate?
- 5 Do you find most computers user-friendly?
- 6 What software programs are you familiar with?
- 7 Do you use e-mail?
- 8 Have you used CD-ROM? If so, what programs did you use and why?
- 9 Do you think 'The Internet' will have an important influence on our daily lives? Do you think it will be important in helping people from different countries to learn English?

78 Education: school

A The system

Most children in England and Wales follow this route in the state system (= free education).

Age

- 3 some go to nursery school
- 5 everyone starts primary school
- 11 pupils go to a secondary school (AmEng = high school). This may be a comprehensive (mixed ability) or a grammar school (= children selected for their academic ability)
- 16 they leave school and get a job, or go to a college for vocational (= job) training, e.g. hotel management, secretarial courses; or stay at school for two more years
- 18 they leave school and get a job or {
 - go to university
 - go to a college for further education/training, e.g. teaching, business studies

Note:

- You go to school (as a pupil to study) and go to university (as a student to study). You don't use the definite article 'the' here. Other expressions like this are go to bed (to sleep), go into hospital (when you are ill); go to church (to pray / to worship).
- In some areas of the UK there are not many grammar schools
- There are also public schools. In fact, these are private, and parents pay to send their children there. Some are expensive. About 5% of the population go to public schools

B A school timetable

	MON	TUES	WED	THURS	FR
Lesson 1	Religious education	Maths	Science	History	Visual Art break
Lesson 2	story	Science	Maths	Geography	Geography
Lesson 3	English		French	Physical Education	Maths lunch
Lesson 4	Maths*	History	Information Technology	Maths	Physics
Lesson 5	Geography	Visual Art		French	English

* Maths is an abbreviation of mathematics

As you can see, the pupils have five lessons every day, and altogether they do (= study) eleven subjects a week plus Physical Education (PE). Every morning they have a twenty-minute break. There are three terms (= periods of continuous work) in a school year, and the timetable changes every year.

Note: Some words in English which end in 's' look plural, but in fact they are singular:

Maths isn't my favourite subject, and physics is very difficult.

Most nouns of this type refer to subjects; other examples are economics and politics.

Exercises

78.1 Here are some school subjects but the letters are mixed up. What are the subjects?

Example: MGREAN , German

- | | |
|--------------|--------------|
| 1 TAHMS | 6 EHCORAGPY |
| 2 IRTHOSY | 7 RAT |
| 3 CNFCSEI | 8 SIMCU |
| 4 NISGEHL | 9 EHNFLR |
| 5 HOGTCEYNLO | 10 NEOCCIOSM |

78.2 How much can you remember? Try to answer these questions or complete the sentences without looking at the opposite page.

- At what age do children go to nursery school?
- At what age do they start primary school?
- When they go to secondary school it is either a grammar school or a
- At what age can English and Welsh children leave school?
- According to the timetable the foreign languages studied is
- Not including PE, how many subjects do the children do?
- What happens if children fail all the exams they take at the age of 16?
- What can they do if they pass all their exams at the age of 18?

78.3 What about you and your country? Answer these questions.

- Did you go to nursery school?
- Do most children start primary school at the age of five?
- Is the secondary school system similar or different?
- How many subjects did/do you study at secondary school?
- Did/do you study any subjects which are not included opposite?
- What was/is your favourite subject?
- How many lessons did/do you have every day?
- Is/was your school a state school or public school?
- At what age can you leave school?
- How many terms are there in a school year?

78.4 Complete these sentences with the correct expression.

- When she was a child she went in a small village with only fifty other pupils.
- He didn't go to school last term because he was very ill and he had to go
- I was very tired, so after I finished my homework I went
- When I left school I went and studied medicine.
- It was a religious school, so we had to go quite a lot.

78.5 The next unit is about university and further education. Can you think of six subjects you can study at university which you do not usually study at school? Write down your answers, then turn to the next page.

79 Education: university

A Subjects

You can normally do/study these subjects at university but not always at school:

m edicine	l a w	ph i losophy	eng i neering
ps y chology	soci o logy	arch i tecture	pol i tics
b usiness studies	ag r iculture	h i story of a rt

Note: The underlined letters in some of the words above show the syllable with the main stress. Also note that the first syllable of psychology is pronounced /saɪ/ like 'my'.

B Studying at (a British) university

If you want to go to (= enter fnl) university, you must first pass examinations that most students take at the age of eighteen (called 'A' levels). Most students take three 'A' levels (three examinations in three different subjects) and they must do well in order to get/obtain a place at university because the places are limited. At the moment, approximately 30% of young adults go to university in Britain.

If you get a place at university, the tuition (= the teaching) is free, and some students also get (= receive) a grant (= money to pay for living expenses, e.g. food and accommodation, as well). Students at university are called undergraduates while they are studying for their first degree.

Most university courses last (= go on for / continue for) three years, some courses last four years, and one or two courses, e.g. medicine, may be even longer. During this period students can say that they are doing/studying history, or doing / studying for a degree in history, for example. When they finish the course and pass their examinations, they receive a degree (the qualification when you complete a university course successfully). This can be a BA (= Bachelor of Arts) or a BSc (= Bachelor of Science), e.g. I have a friend who has a BA in history, and another who has a BSc in chemistry.

C Postgraduate courses

When you complete your first degree, you are a graduate. (In the US, students also use this word as a verb and say, they 'graduated in history' or 'graduated in chemistry', for example.) Some students then go on to do a second course or degree (postgraduate course / postgraduate degree). These students are then postgraduates. There are usually three possible degrees:

MA (Master of Arts) or MSc (Master of Science); usually one year

MPhil (Master of Philosophy); usually two years

PhD (Doctor of Philosophy); at least three years

When people study one subject in great detail (often to find new information), we say they are conducting / doing / carrying out research (U); e.g.

I'm doing some research into/on the languages of different African tribes

D School vs. university

At school, you have teachers and lessons, at university, you have lecturers and lectures.

When a lecturer gives/does a lecture, the students listen and take/make notes (= write down the important information), but do not usually say much, except to ask occasional questions.

Exercises

79.1 Read these sentences spoken by university students. What is each person studying?

- 1 We have to know every bone in a person's body.
- 2 I'm concentrating on the modernist style and the work of Le Corbusier and Frank Lloyd Wright
- 3 The way we use fertilizers is much more precise than twenty years ago.
- 4 We're going to concentrate on Freud and Jung this term.
- 5 I've been reading some books on time management.
- 6 Expressionism was really a reaction to the work of the Impressionists.
- 7 We've spent a lot of time on American foreign policy and how it has been affected by various domestic problems
- 8 You must know this case - it's one of the most famous in legal history

Now mark the stress on each of your answers, check with the answer key, and practise saying the words.

79.2 What do you call:

- 1 the money some students receive if they get a place at university?
- 2 the qualification you get at the end of university?
- 3 the name we give students during this period at university?
- 4 teachers at university?
- 5 students when they have completed their first degree?
- 6 students studying for a second degree?
- 7 the study of one subject in great depth and detail, often to get new information?
- 8 the talks that students go to while they are at university?

79.3 Replace the underlined verbs with different verbs that have the same meaning in the context.

- 1 Who is giving the lecture today?
- 2 Did she receive a grant for her course?
- 3 Is it more difficult to obtain a place at university?
- 4 You have to pass the exams before you can enter university.
- 5 He's studying physics, I think.
- 6 I think they're carrying out some research into the cause of asthma.
- 7 I didn't take any notes in the lecture yesterday.
- 8 The course goes on for three years.

79.4 How similar is university education in your own country? Answer these questions. If possible, compare your answers with someone else from your own country and/or someone from a different country.

- 1 Do you need to pass examinations before you can go to university?
- 2 Do some students get a grant to study at university?
- 3 Is the tuition free if you go to university?
- 4 Do most students go to university at the age of 18 or 19?
- 5 Do more students go to university in your country than in Britain?
- 6 Do most degree courses last three years?
- 7 What is your equivalent of the British BA or BSc?
- 8 Do you have similar postgraduate degrees in your country?

80 Law and order

A The police

They do a number of things. When someone commits a crime (= breaks the law and does something wrong / illegal / against the law), the police must investigate (= try to find out what happened / who is responsible). If they find the person responsible for the crime, they arrest them (= take them to the police station). At the police station, they question them (= ask them questions to find out what they know, and if they are sure the person committed the crime, the person is charged with the crime (= the police make an official statement that they believe the person committed the crime). The person must then go to court for trial.

B The court

In court, the person charged with the crime (now called the defendant or accused) must try to prove (= provide facts to show something is true) that they did not commit the crime; in other words prove that they are innocent (\neq guilty). The jury listens to all the evidence (= information about the crime, for and against the defendant) and then makes their decision.

C Punishment

If the defendant is convicted of the crime (= the jury decides that the defendant is guilty), the judge will give the sentence (= the punishment). For example, if a person is convicted of murder, the sentence will be many years in prison. The person then becomes a prisoner, and the room they live in is called a cell.

For crimes that are not serious (often called minor offences, e.g. illegal parking), the punishment is usually a fine (= money you have to pay).

Exercises

80.1 Put this story in the correct order.

- 1 they found both men guilty.
- 2 and charged them with the robbery
- 3 £10,000 was stolen from a bank in the High Street.
- 4 After the jury had listened to all the evidence
- 5 They were sent to prison for seven years
- 6 The trial took place two months later.
- 7 and they finally arrested two men.
- 8 They questioned them at the police station
- 9 The police questioned a number of people about the crime

80.2 Answer the questions.

- 1 Who investigates crimes?
- 2 Who sentences people?
- 3 Who live in cells?
- 4 Who decides if someone is innocent or guilty?
- 5 Who defend people and present evidence?
- 6 Who commit crimes?

80.3 Fill the gaps with suitable words.

- 1 I have never _____ the law and _____ a crime.
- 2 In Britain it is _____ the law to drive a car without insurance.
- 3 If you park illegally you will have to pay a _____.
- 4 The police were fairly sure the man committed the crime, but they knew it would be difficult to _____ it in court.
- 5 The jury must decide if the accused is innocent or _____.
- 6 In order to reach their decision, the jury must listen carefully to the _____.
- 7 If the accused is _____ of murder, the _____ may be at least ten years in prison.
- 8 He has been in trouble with the police once before, but it was only a minor _____.

80.4 Read this short story, then write down your response to the questions below, based on your knowledge of the law in your own country.

Two fifteen-year-old boys broke into a house in the middle of the day when the owner was out, and took money and jewellery worth about £900. The owner reported the crime to the police when she returned home at 6 p.m.

- 1 Will the police investigate this crime?
- 2 How will they investigate? What will they do?
- 3 Do you think the police will catch the two boys?
- 4 If they do, what crime will they be charged with?
- 5 Can the boys be sent to prison?
- 6 What do you think the sentence would be? Do you think this is the correct sentence?

Compare your answers with the answer key (based on the situation in the United Kingdom). If possible, discuss your answers with someone else.

Crime

A Against the law

If you do something illegal (= wrong / against the law), then you have committed a crime. Most people commit a crime at some time in their lives, e.g. driving above the speed limit, parking illegally, stealing sweets from a shop when they were children, etc.

B Crimes

Crime	Criminal (= person)	Verb theft (= general word for stealing)	thief	steal (also take) robbery (= steal from people or places)	robber	rob burglary (= break into a shop/house and steal things)	burglar	burgle / break into shoplifting (= steal from shops when open)	shoplifter	shoplift murder (= kill someone by intention)	murderer	murder manslaughter (= kill someone by accident)	–	–
rape (= force someone to have sex)	rapist	rape

C Crime prevention

What can governments do to fight crime (= take action to stop crime)? These things happen in some countries, although many people may think they are not a good idea.

Police carry (= have) guns.

Police are allowed to (= are permitted to) stop anyone in the street and question them.

The courts give tougher punishments for crimes committed than in the past (e.g. bigger fines or longer prison sentences than in the past).

There is capital punishment (= death, e.g. by electric chair or hanging) for some crimes.

What can individuals do to prevent a crime from happening (= stop a crime happening)?

Here are things some people do to protect themselves and their property (= home and land), although you may not think they are all a good idea.

Don't walk along dark streets late at night (e.g. midnight) on your own (= alone).

Lock all doors and windows when you go out.

Don't wear expensive jewellery.

Leave lights on at home when you go out.

Fit (= install) a burglar alarm (= a machine which makes a noise if someone enters your home).

Make sure your money is safe, e.g. wear a money belt.

Carry a mace spray. (This is a chemical and if you spray it in someone's face, it is very unpleasant. In some countries you are allowed to carry this type of spray.)

Put money and valuables (= valuable possessions) in a safe (= a strong metal box, which is very difficult to open or break).

Keep a gun in your house for self-defence (= to protect yourself if someone attacks you).

Exercises

These exercises also revise some vocabulary from Unit 80.

81.1 Organise the words in the box into three groups: crimes, people, and places.

murder	thief	prison	barrister	robbery
burglar	cell	criminal	court	rape	shoplifting manslaughter	judge	prisoner	jury	police station

81.2 Respond to these statements or questions confirming the crime in each one.

- A: He broke into the house, didn't he?
B: Yes, he's been charged with
- A: He killed his wife?
B: Yes, he's been charged
- A: She stole clothes and jewellery from that department store, didn't she?
B: Yes, and she's been
- A: The man on the motorbike didn't mean to kill the boy.
B: No, but he's been charged
- A: He took the money from her bag?
B: Yes, but they caught him and he's been 81.3 How safe and secure are you? Answer these questions, yes or no.

- | | | |
|---|---------|--------|
| 1 Do you often walk in areas which are not very safe? | yes = 1 | no = 0 |
| 2 Do you often walk on your own in these areas late at night? | yes = 2 | no = 0 |
| 3 Do you wear a money belt when you go out? | yes = 0 | no = 1 |
| 4 Do you wear an expensive watch or expensive jewellery? | yes = 1 | no = 0 |
| 5 Do you check doors and windows before you go out when your home is empty? | yes = 0 | no = 2 |
| 6 Do you have a burglar alarm? | yes = 0 | no = 1 |
| 7 Do you leave lights on when you go out? | yes = 0 | no = 1 |
| 8 Is there someone who protects the building while you are out? | yes = 0 | no = 2 |
| 9 Do you have a safe in your home? | yes = 0 | no = 1 |

Now add up your score: less than 3 = very, very safe; 3-5 = quite safe; 6-8 = you could take a lot more care; more than 8 = you are a dangerous person to know!

81.4 Fill the gaps in these questions with a suitable word.

- Do you think the police should guns?
- Do you think the police should be to stop and question people without a special reason?
- Do you agree with capital for certain crimes such as murder?
- Do you think it should be legal for people to carry a mace ?
- Do you think people should be allowed to use a gun or knife in self-..... ?
- Do you think tougher punishments will help to crime?

What is your opinion on these questions? Discuss them with another person if possible.

82 Politics

A Types of government

Monarchy: a state ruled by a king or queen. There are also countries that have a monarchy, but the monarch is not the ruler, e.g. The United Kingdom.

Republic: a state governed by representatives (= men or women chosen by the people) and a president, e.g. USA or France. People who believe in this system are republicans.

Democracy: a system of government in which leaders are chosen by the people, e.g. France or the UK. People who believe in this system are democrats.

Dictatorship: a system of government in which one person rules the country (= one person has total power). This person is called a dictator.

B Political beliefs

Abstract noun	Personal noun/adjective conservatism	conservative
socialism	socialist
social democracy	social democrat
liberalism	liberal communism	communist
fascism	fascist

People who believe in social democracy are social democrats.

C Political positions

What does it mean to be a socialist or a conservative? Often, it means different things in different countries, but in Britain we often talk about someone's political position like this:

left-wing / on the left (= socialist)	middle of the road / in the centre (= liberal)	right-wing / on the right (= conservative)

D Elections

In a democracy, people vote for (= they choose in a formal way / elect) the political party (e.g. conservatives, liberals or socialists) that they want to form (= make) the government. They do this in an election, and in many countries elections take place / are held – they happen) every four or five years.

42% voted for the socialists in the last election (= the socialists got 42% of the votes). The president was elected two years ago.

E Government

Political systems are different all over the world. In the UK, when a political party wins a majority (= 51% or more) of seats (= official positions in parliament) in an election, they become the government of the country, their leader (= the head of the party / person in control) becomes Prime Minister and they are in power.

The government must have policies (= programmes of action) to run (= manage) the country. This means, for example, an economic policy (for the economy), and a foreign policy (for actions taken by the country in other parts of the world).

Exercises

82.1 Complete this word building table. Use a dictionary to help you if necessary.

Abstract noun	Person	Adjective politics democracy dictatorship socialism conservatism liberalism

82.2 Fill the gaps to complete this text about the political system in the United Kingdom. One word in each gap.

In the UK (1) _____ are held every five years. (The (2) _____ Minister may decide to hold one after four years, but five years is the maximum.)
Some countries have a system of proportional representation: this means in theory, that a political party with 30% of the (3) _____ should get 30% of the seats in (4) _____. In the UK, the political (5) _____ is different: here the winner takes all. This means that the person with the most votes in each political area (called a constituency) wins the seat, and the political (6) _____ which wins a (7) _____ of the seats will (8) _____ the government on their own. As a result of this system, it is possible for a party to be in (9) _____ with only 40% of the total vote. Some people think this system is unfair.

What do you think? What possible reasons could there be to justify (= support) this system? Think about your answer, then compare it with the ideas suggested in the key.

82.3 Answer these questions about your own country. If possible, ask someone else the same questions.

- 1 Which party is in power at the moment?
- 2 When were they elected?
- 3 Who is the leader of this party?
- 4 Is this person the President or Prime Minister of your country?
- 5 Do you agree with most of their policies?
- 6 Would you describe yourself as left wing, right wing, or in the centre?
- 7 Do you think your political views have changed much during your lifetime?
- 8 How many major (= important) political parties are there?
- 9 Who did you vote for in the last election?
- 10 Do you think this party will win the next election? Will you vote for them again?

82.4 You can increase your English vocabulary in politics quite easily:

Buy three newspapers (in English if you are in an English speaking country, or your own language if you are in your own country), and find the same political story in each one. Read the articles and underline any words that appear in all of them, and any other words you think are important. If you are reading a newspaper in English, try to guess the meaning of these words and then use a dictionary to check.

This exercise is equally useful if you read articles in your own language. You use a bilingual dictionary to find the English translation/explanation for your underlined words, and you can then look up these words in a monolingual dictionary as well.

83 Bureaucracy

A What is it?

Bureaucracy refers to the official rules and procedures used by officials (= bureaucrats) to control an organisation or country. For many people it is a negative word as it often means unnecessary rules, long waits, and lots of documents and forms.

B Documents

When you need to obtain (= get) or show documents, it is important that you know the names of them. Here are some important ones:

passport

identity card: a card with your name, date of birth and photo to show who you are. Great Britain is one of the few countries where people still do not have identity cards.

driving licence: the official document which permits you to drive on public roads.

visa: this gives you permission to enter, pass through or leave a country certificates: official pieces of paper stating certain facts, e.g. a birth certificate gives facts about your birth, and exam certificates state you have passed certain exams

Officials often check (= look at and examine) your documents, e.g. the police may check your driving licence; passport officials may check your identity card

Some of these documents are for a fixed period of time, e.g. a visa may be for six months.

At the end of that time, your visa runs out (informal) / expires (formal) (= it finishes / comes to an end). If you want to stay in the country you must renew it (= have a new one for a further period of time). You can renew a visa, a passport, a membership card for a club, etc.

C Forms

There are also situations where you need to fill in (= complete) forms. Here are some.

landing card: a form you may have to fill in when you enter another country.

enrolment form: a form you often fill in when you do a course, go to a school or college, etc. It may also be called a registration form.

application form: a form to write details of yourself, often when applying for a job.

With almost all forms, you will need to sign them (= write your signature), e.g.:

signed

D Formal language

Here are some formal written expressions and their spoken English meanings

Written	Spoken
date of birth	= When were you born?
country of origin	= Where do you come from?
marital status	= Are you single or married?
date of arrival	= When did you arrive?
date of departure	= When are you leaving? (or when did you leave?)

E Bureaucratic problems

We often associate bureaucracy with problems. For example, you may have to queue (v, n) (= wait in a line) to get an official piece of paper or have it stamped.

Exercises

83.1 Write down at least two words which can be used before these nouns.

- | | | | |
|---|-------------|---|---------|
| 1 | card | 3 | licence |
| 2 | certificate | 4 | form |

83.2 Complete these sentences with a suitable word.

- Will you need to ... a visa if you go to the United States?
- I was surprised that nobody ... my passport when we arrived in France.
- Could you ... this form, please?
- They sent the form back to me because I had forgotten to ... it at the bottom.
- I'm afraid my visa ... next week, so if I want to stay here I will have to ... it. But I don't think it'll be a problem.
- You should get there early because there are always long ..., and you may have to wait quite a long time.
- I want to do an English course in London, so I wrote to a few schools and asked them to send me an ... form.

83.3 How many of these documents do you have?

- | | |
|------------------------|--|
| a passport | an identity card |
| a driving licence | a TV licence |
| a birth certificate | a degree certificate (from a university) |
| a marriage certificate | an exam certificate for an English exam, e.g. Cambridge, Oxford or ARELS |

83.4 Complete these sentences with a suitable paraphrase.

- What's your date of birth? In other words, when ...
- What's your country of origin?
- What's your marital status?
- What was your date of arrival?
- When's your date of departure?

83.5 I asked some English people what they felt about bureaucracy and also about problems they had had with bureaucracy. What about you? How do you feel? Have you had any problems? Write down your thoughts and problems, then compare them with the replies from British people in the answer key.

84 War and peace

A The outbreak (= start) of war

Wars often start because of a conflict (= strong disagreement) between countries or groups of people, about territory (= land that belongs to one group or country). Look at the diagram on the right and read the text on the left.

Country A invades country B (= A enters B by force and in large numbers), and captures (also takes / takes control of) the city of X. Soldiers from country B have to retreat (= go backwards; ≠ to advance) to the city of Y. A's army and air force continue to attack the city of Y (= take violent action to damage it), but B's soldiers defend it (= take action to protect it) successfully.

B A war zone

The area around the city of Y is now the main war zone (= the area where the fighting is happening). Country B has asked for help from its allies (= countries who are friends with country B). The allies send aid (= help) in the form of extra troops (= large groups of soldiers) and supplies (= food and other things that are needed every day, e.g. blankets and medicine) to help. There is shelling (= firing of guns and explosives) of the city every day and hundreds of soldiers are either killed or wounded (= injured while fighting). Many civilians (= ordinary people who are not in the army) are killed as well.

C Peace talks

For the civilians who are still alive (≠ dead), the situation gets worse. As winter approaches, food supplies run out (= they are almost gone/finished) and there is no electricity. The soldiers get tired, and both sides begin to see that neither side can win the war; they agree to meet for peace talks pl) (= talks to try to negotiate a peace settlement / an end to the war). After some time they agree to a ceasefire (= a period of no fighting).

D Terrorism

This is violent action for political reasons. People who do this are terrorists, and a common terrorist crime is hijacking (= to take control of a bus, train, ship or plane; the people on board then become prisoners). The main purpose of hijacking is to use the prisoners (called hostages) in order to bargain for something (= to demand something in exchange for the hostages). The terrorists may agree to release (v, n) the hostages (= permit the hostages to go free) if a government agrees to give the terrorists money or release other terrorists.

Exercises

84.1 Match the words on the left with the correct definition on the right.

- | | |
|-------------|---|
| 1 ally | a land controlled by a country |
| 2 release | b stop fighting |
| 3 conflict | c permit to go free |
| 4 troops | d injure while fighting |
| 5 invade | e large groups of soldiers |
| 6 wound | f friendly country |
| 7 territory | g strong disagreement |
| 8 ceasefire | h enter another country by force and in large numbers |

84.2 Use opposites to contradict what the speaker says in the sentences below. Look at the example first.

Example: A: Is the soldier dead?

B: No, he's still alive.

- A: Will they agree to a ceasefire?
B: No, they'll
- A: Do you think the army will try to advance when the weather improves?
B: No, I think
- A: Do the people still have lots of food?
B: No, they're beginning to
- A: Is the town mostly full of soldiers?
B: No, they're
- A: Do you think they'll keep the hostages for a long time?
B: No, I'm sure they'll

84.3 When we repeat an idea in a text we often try to avoid using the same word twice. Read this text and find examples of words being used as synonyms for previous ideas. The first one has been done for you (food and medicine – supplies).

THERE is a desperate need for food and medicine, but with the town surrounded, the lorries are unable to bring in essential supplies. We have seen ordinary people in the street giving some of their meagre rations of food to the soldiers who are defending them, but very soon the troops will be just as hungry as the civilians if the situation gets any worse.

Meanwhile, the centre of the town is being slowly destroyed. There is almost daily shelling of the buildings that still stand, and this morning we witnessed gunmen firing at almost anyone who dared to go out into the streets. One old woman was hit in the leg and we saw at least two others who were quite badly wounded as well.

Aid agencies have appealed to the soldiers to allow them to enter the town, but so far the General in command has even refused to let anyone in, including doctors and nurses. Many fear it is now only a matter of days before the town is captured, and if this happens, the army could take control of the whole region within weeks.

84.4 Can you answer these questions with two reasons for each one? If possible, discuss your answers with someone else before checking with the key.

- Why do terrorists take hostages?
- Why do some governments always refuse to agree to terrorist demands?

85 Pollution and the environment

A Important definitions

People are more worried about the environment (= the air, water, and land around us) as a result of the harmful (= dangerous/damaging) effects of human activity. Some of these activities cause pollution (= dirty air, land and water) and some are destroying the environment (= damaging it so badly that soon parts will not exist). Here are some of the problems the ozone layer: a layer of gases which stop harmful radiation from the sun reaching the earth; recent research shows that there is now a hole in parts of the ozone layer.

global warming: an increase in world temperature caused by an increase in carbon dioxide acid rain: rain that contains dangerous chemicals; this is caused by smoke from factories.

B The 'greens'

Because of these problems, there are many groups of people whose aim is conservation (= the protection of natural things, e.g. plants and animals). They are often referred to as greens, e.g. 'Greenpeace' and 'Friends of the Earth'.

C Common causes of damage smoke from factories

car exhaust fumes

dumping (= throwing away) industrial waste (= unwanted material) in seas and rivers aerosol cans (usually called sprays). Some of these contain CFCs (= a chemical) which can damage the ozone layer.

cutting down tropical rainforests (e.g. The Amazon). This increases carbon dioxide in the atmosphere.

D How can we help?

- Don't throw away bottles, newspapers, etc. Take them to a bottle bank or newspaper bank, and then they can be recycled (= used again)
- Plant more trees
- Don't waste (= use badly) resources, e.g. water, gas. Try to save (= waste) them.

Note: a resource is a valuable possession. There are natural resources, e.g. water or gold; and human resources, e.g. knowledge and skills. The word is usually plural.

Exercises

85.1 Fill the gaps to form a compound noun or phrase from the opposite page.

- | | |
|-------------------|---------------------|
| 1 the layer | 5 warming |
| 2 rain | 6 fumes |
| 3 waste | 7 rainforests |
| 4 a bottle | 8 natural or human |

85.2 Complete these word-building tables. If necessary, use a dictionary to help you.

Noun	Verb	Noun	Adjective
waste	damage
	protect	environment
.....	destroy	harm
pollution	danger
damage	safe

85.3 Complete the definitions.

- Conservation is the protection of natural things, e.g. and
- Acid rain is rain that contains dangerous chemicals. It is caused by
- The ozone layer is a layer of gases that stop dangerous radiation from the sun from reaching
- Global warming is an increase in world temperature caused by an increase in
- CFC (chlorofluorocarbon) is a chemical which 85.4 If we want to look after the environment, there are certain things we should and shouldn't do. Complete these two lists in suitable ways.

We should:

paper, bottles and clothes.
tropical rainforests.
more trees.
water and energy

We shouldn't:

paper, bottles and clothes.
the ozone layer.
water and energy
tropical rainforests

85.5 Test your knowledge of words from the opposite page and 'green' issues. Are these statements true or false?

- CFCs protect the ozone layer.
- 'Greens' believe in conservation
- A hole in the ozone layer could increase skin cancer
- Cutting down tropical rainforests increases the amount of carbon dioxide in the atmosphere
- Plastic cannot be recycled.

86 Air travel

A Departures

This is the usual sequence of activities when you get to the airport.

First you go to the check-in desk where they weigh your luggage. Usually you are permitted 20 kilos, but if your bags weigh more, you may have to pay excess baggage (= you pay extra). The airline representative checks your ticket and gives you a boarding card for the plane with your seat number on it. Then you go through passport control where an official checks [NOT ~~controls~~] your passport, and into the departure lounge. Here, you can also buy things in the duty-free, e.g. perfume, alcohol and cigarettes. About half an hour or forty minutes before take-off, you are told to go to a gate number, e.g. gate 14, where you wait before you get on the plane. When you board (= get on) the plane, you find your seat. If you have hand luggage, you can put it under your seat or in the overhead locker above your seat.

The plane then taxis (= moves slowly) towards the runway, and when it has permission to take off, it accelerates along the runway and takes off.

Note: The verb to taxi is generally only used in this context.

B The flight

You may want or need to understand certain announcements; these come from the captain (= the pilot) or from an air steward or stewardess / cabin crew / flight attendants – people who look after the passengers):

Please fasten your seat belt and put your seat in the upright position.

We are now cruising (= flying comfortably) at an altitude (= height) of 10,000 metres.

May we remind passengers (= ask passengers to remember) that there is no smoking until you are inside the terminal building (= where passengers arrive and depart).

The cabin crew (= air stewards) are now coming round with landing cards. (These are cards you sometimes have to fill in when you enter certain countries.)

C Arrival

When the plane lands (= arrives on the ground), you have to wait for it to stop / come to a halt. When the doors are open, you get off the plane and walk through the terminal building and go to the baggage reclaim where you collect your luggage. You then pass through customs (green – nothing to declare; red – goods to declare; blue = European Union citizens). If you are lucky, you can then get a bus, taxi or train to the centre of town without waiting too long. You can also hire a car (= rent a car) at most airports.

Note: In British English you normally hire something for a short period, e.g. hire a room for a party, and rent something for a long period, e.g. a flat; for a car, you can use both words.

Exercises

86.1 Complete the words or phrases below using words from the box.

off	control	free	card	baggage
n	lounge	luggage	reclaim	locker

- | | |
|------------|-------------|
| 1 boarding | 6 duty |

86.2 What do you call:

- The place where you go when you arrive at the airport with your luggage?
- The card they give you with the seat number on it?
- The money you have to pay if your luggage is very heavy?
- The place where you sit and have a drink when you are waiting for your flight to be called?
- The bags you carry onto the plane with you?
- The place above your head where you can put your hand luggage?
- The part of the airport where the plane accelerates and takes off?
- The people who look after you on the plane?
- The part of the airport you walk through when you arrive or depart?
- The place where you collect your luggage after you land?

86.3 Complete this part of a letter about an unpleasant flight.

Dear Tom

I've just arrived in Rome but I'm still recovering from a really terrible flight. We ⁽¹⁾ two hours late because of bad weather, and then over the channel we hit more bad weather. The ⁽²⁾ announced that we had to ⁽³⁾ our seat belts, which was a bit worrying, and for half an hour we ⁽⁴⁾ through a terrible storm. It was still raining and very windy when we ⁽⁵⁾ in Rome and I was really glad to ⁽⁶⁾ the plane and get into the airport building.

Fortunately things have improved since then but I really hope the return ⁽⁷⁾ is a lot better.

86.4 Think about the whole experience of flying (from check-in to the time you leave the airport at your destination) and answer these questions. If possible, discuss your answers with someone else.

- What is the most interesting part, and what is the most boring part?
- Where do you often have delays, and why?
- Is there any part that frightens or worries you?
- What do you usually do during most flights?
- Do you always eat the food they give you?
- Is there one thing which would improve flying and make the experience more interesting?

87 Hotels

A Types of hotel

Hotels in Britain are graded with stars from one-star to five-star (five-star hotels are the best and most expensive). You can also stay in a Bed & Breakfast (B&B) (also called Guest Houses) where you pay for a bedroom, possibly an ensuite (= room with private bathroom) and breakfast.

B Types of hotel accommodation

a single room: for one person with a single bed a double room: for two people with one large double bed a twin room: for two people with two single beds full board: includes breakfast, lunch and dinner half board: includes breakfast and dinner
 B & B: just the room and breakfast

C A visit to a hotel

We stayed in the Carlton Hotel for three nights in July, but I booked (= reserved) our room three months in advance (= before; in other words, in April) because it was the middle of the tourist season. When we arrived we checked in at reception, then the porter carried our suitcases up to our room. I gave him a small tip (n, v) – about 50p, I think. The staff were very friendly – we had a very nice chambermaid (= the woman who cleans the room) – and the room was very comfortable. The only problem we had, in fact, was with the shower which didn't work (= function) very well. (You could also say 'There was something wrong with the shower'.)

D Useful words and expressions

Could I book (= reserve) a room for next Thursday?
 Could I have an early morning call at 7 a.m. please? (= Could you wake me at 7 a.m.)
 Could you put it on my bill, please? (= add the cost to the bill, e.g. for a drink you have in the hotel bar)
 Could I pay my bill, please? (= pay for everything)
 Could you order (= call) a taxi for me to go to the airport?
 Are you fully booked (= completely full) next week?
 Is breakfast/dinner included? (= Does the price include breakfast/dinner?)
 Where's the lift? (= the machine which takes you up or down a floor) [AmEng – elevator] Excuse me. How do I get to the underground station from here?

Exercises

- 9 I arrived at the hotel.
- 10 I got up and had a shower.
- 11 I had breakfast.

88 A sightseeing holiday

A Sightseeing

You may do a bit of sightseeing on holiday, or you may do a lot of sightseeing, but you will probably go to a museum or art gallery, and see or visit some of these things:

Many people go on a sightseeing tour of a town (usually in a bus); they can also go on a tour of the castle / the cathedral / the art gallery, etc. When you are sightseeing, it helps to buy a guidebook (= a book of information for tourists) and a map of the town you are in.

B Things that tourists often do on holiday look round the shops / have a look round the shops take photographs

spend a lot of / lots of money

buy souvenirs (= typical products from the country)

get lost (= lose their way) go out most evenings (= go to different places for social reasons, e.g. restaurant or disco) have a good/great time (= enjoy themselves)

C Describing 'places'

The word place is very common and can describe a building, an area, a town, or country:

Bruges is a lovely place (= town) and we found a really nice place (= hotel) to stay.

The town is full of interesting places (= areas/buildings).

These words are often used when we describe places.

Venice is beautiful but it's always packed (= very crowded/full) with tourists in the summer.

New York is very cosmopolitan. (= full of people from different countries and cultures)

Vienna has lots of historical monuments. (= places, e.g. castles, built a long time ago)

Many beautiful cities have become very touristy. (= a negative word: 'too much tourism')

Sao Paulo is a really lively place (= full of life and activity) and the night-life is fantastic.

Note: If you want to ask if it is 'a good idea' to visit a place, you can use worth + -ing:

A: If I go to Scotland, is it worth spending a few days in Glasgow?

B: Yes definitely. And if you want to travel round a bit, it's worth renting a car.

Exercises

On the beach and in the country

A Places to stay

When people go on holiday they stay in various places (= a number of different places): some go to hotels; others rent an apartment (a 'holiday' flat) or villa (= a house by the sea or in the countryside; often in the Mediterranean / southern Europe); some prefer sleeping in a tent at a campsite.

B At the beach

Many people spend their holiday in seaside resorts (= towns by the sea for tourists, e.g. Malaga, St. Tropez, Okinawa) where they can spend most of their time on the beach. Some people enjoy swimming, others love sunbathing (= lying on the beach in order to get a suntan). If you like sunbathing, you should use suntan lotion to help you get a tan and protect your skin. If you don't have any protection, you may get sunburn, which is painful and can be dangerous. And if you want total protection you should use sunblock, or sit under a beach umbrella.

Swimming can also be dangerous if there are rocks under the water or if the sea is rough, e.g. with big waves.

C In the country

People who live in large towns often like to get away (= leave the place where they live) at weekends or in the summer, and enjoy the peace and quiet (= calm and tranquillity) of the country (also called the countryside). Some people just like to put their feet up (= relax and do nothing) and occasionally go for a stroll (= a slow casual walk); while others enjoy hiking (= long walks, often hill walking) across hills and valleys. And the countryside is a great place to have a picnic (= eating a prepared meal of cold food outside).

Note: Learners sometimes say 'I love to be in the nature'. This is usually a translation from their first language and it is not correct in English. The nearest we can say is probably 'I love being in the countryside'.

Exercises

- 89.1 Write down at least five words beginning with 'sun'. You can check your answers on the opposite page and in the index.

sun,
sun, sun

- 89.2 Match a word from the left with a word from the right to form eight words or phrases.

1 sandy	waves
2 suntan	bathe
3 beach	beach
4 rough	lotion
5 sun	sea
6 sea	cliff
7 big	side
8 steep	umbrella

Now write answers to these questions.

- Why do most people go to seaside resorts?
- Why do people sunbathe?
- Why do they use sunblock?
- Why do they use suntan lotion?
- How does it feel if you get sunburn?
- What sport requires big waves?
- Have you been in a boat when the sea was very rough? Were you seasick?

- 89.3 Complete this short text with a suitable word or phrase in each gap.

I live and work in Milan but I like to (1) at the weekend if possible. My parents have a small house in the (2), about 100 kilometres from Milan, and it's a great place to go if you want a bit of peace and (3) In the summer you can just (4) by the pool during the hottest part of the day, then in the evening go for a (5) through the village or over the fields. Sometimes we go out for the whole day and have a (6) somewhere, by the lake or next to one of the many vineyards.

- 89.4 Fill the gaps with a suitable word. (One word only for each gap.)

- Would you prefer a holiday in a seaside or a holiday in the country?
- Would you prefer to stay in one place, or would you rather (= prefer to) go to places?
- Would you prefer to spend your time on a beach or would you rather go for long walks?
- Would you prefer to stay in a hotel or an apartment?
- Would you prefer to eat in a restaurant or have a in the open air?
- Would you prefer somewhere that was quite lively, or would you rather go to a place where there was peace and

Look at the questions again. Which would you prefer? If possible, discuss your answers with someone else.

Important exceptions are: at Christmas, at Easter, at the weekend, at night

B Words often confused

Some time prepositions are easily confused. These are common problems.

I will stay here until she phones. (= I will go after she has phoned)

I will be in the office until 4 o'clock. (= I will leave the office at 4 o'clock)

I will be in the office by 4 o'clock. (= I will arrive at the office not later than 4 o'clock)

I've worked in this office since May. (since + a point in time)

I worked for a newspaper during the war / 1990 / the summer. (this tells you 'when')

I worked for a newspaper for four years / six months. (this tells you 'how long',

[NOT I worked for the newspaper ~~during~~ four years]

Note: During a period may mean a part of that period or the whole period, e.g. 'during the war' can mean part of the war or the whole war. The context usually makes it clear, but if we want to stress or emphasise that an action occupied the whole period, we often use throughout, e.g. It rained throughout the night. (= it didn't stop raining)

I'm going back to Spain in ten days' time. (= ten days from now)

We arranged our next meeting for April 7th. (= to be on April 7th)

I haven't seen Tom recently/late (e.g. in the last few weeks).

I used to go to an Australian dentist but that was a long time ago (e.g. 5-10 years ago).

My sister went to the dentist the other day (= a few days ago).

This dictionary will be OK for the time being (= for now / until I need a better one)

D Periods of time

There are 60 seconds in a minute, 60 minutes in an hour, 24 hours in a day, 7 days in a week, 2 weeks in a fortnight, 52 weeks in a year, 10 years in a decade, 100 years in a century.

E Time passing: take and last

My English course lasts ten weeks. (= it continues for ten weeks)

How long does the film last? (= How long is it from the beginning to the end?)

It takes me (= I need) half an hour to get to school

We can walk but it'll take (= we'll need) a long time.

Exercises

Numbers

A Cardinal numbers

379 = three hundred and seventy nine 2,860 = two thousand eight hundred and sixty
 5,084 = five thousand and eighty-four 470,000 = four hundred and seventy thousand
 2,550,000 = two million, five hundred and fifty thousand
 3,000,000,000 = three billion

Note. There is no plural 's' after hundred, thousand, million and billion when they are part of a number. On their own, they can be plural, e.g. thousands of people; millions of insects.

B Ordinal numbers and dates

One of the problems with dates is that we write them and say them in a different way:

We write 4 January (or 4th January), but say the fourth of January or January the fourth.

We write 21 May (or 21st May), but say the twenty-first of May or May the twenty first.

1997 = nineteen ninety seven

1905 = nineteen hundred and five or nineteen oh five

C Fractions and decimals

$1\frac{1}{4}$ = one and a quarter

$1\frac{1}{3}$ = one and a third

1.75 = one point seven five

$1\frac{1}{2}$ = one and a half

1.25 = one point two five

1.33 = one point three three

$1\frac{3}{4}$ = one and three quarters

1.5 = one point five

D Percentages

26% = twenty six per cent

More than 50% is the majority; less than 50% is the minority.

E Arithmetic

There are four basic processes for working out (= calculating) a problem:

+ = addition e.g. $6 + 4 = 10$ (six plus/and four equals/is ten)

- = subtraction e.g. $6 - 4 = 2$ (six minus four equals/is two)

× = multiplication e.g. $6 \times 4 = 24$ (six times / multiplied by four equals/is twenty-four)

÷ = division e.g. $4 \div 2 = 2$ (four divided by two equals/is two)

F Saying '0'

This can be spoken in different ways in different contexts.

telephone number: 603 724 = six oh three, seven two four (AmEng = six zero three) mathematics: 0.7 = nought point seven, 6.02 = six point oh two temperature: -10 degrees = ten degrees below zero / minus ten degrees football: 2-0 = two nil tennis: 40-0 = forty love

G Talking numbers

Here are several useful words and expressions connected with numbers

The streets have got odd numbers (e.g. 3, 5, 7) on the left and even numbers (e.g. 4, 6, 8) on the right.

I got 16 out of 20 in our last test.

$\frac{16}{20}$

Exercises

91.1 How do you say these numbers in English? Write your answers after each one.

- 1 462
- 2 $2\frac{1}{2}$
- 3 2,345
- 4 6.75
- 5 0.25
- 6 $3\frac{1}{3}$
- 7 1,250,000
- 8 10.04
- 9 47%
- 10 10 September
- 11 3 July
- 12 602 8477 (phone number)
- 13 -5 centigrade
- 14 In 1903
- 15 In 1876

Now practise saying them. If possible, record yourself saying them and then record a native speaker of English saying them or someone from your country who speaks English very well. Listen to both. How do you sound?

91.2 Correct the mistakes in these sentences.

- 1 After the game I heard the crowd was over twenty thousands.
- 2 We arrived on the ten September.
- 3 There were two hundred twenty altogether.
- 4 I got twenty-five from forty in my test.
- 5 My birthday is thirty one August.
- 6 My phone number is seven twenty three, six nought nine.

91.3 Write answers to these problems.

- 1 23 and 36 is
- 2 24 times 8 is
- 3 80 minus 20 is
- 4 65 divided by 13 is
- 5 Add 10 and 6, multiply by 8, then subtract 40 and divide by 11. What have you got left?
- 6 Divide 33 by 11, multiply by 7, add 10, and subtract 16. What number is left?

91.4 Answer these questions. Write your answers in words.

- 1 When were you born?
- 2 How much do you weigh?
- 3 What is the number of the flat or house where you live?
- 4 Is that an odd or an even number?
- 5 What is the approximate population of your town?
- 6 What is the approximate population of your country?
- 7 What is the normal temperature of a healthy person?
- 8 How many kilometres are there in a mile?

Distance, size and dimension

A Distance

The most common way of asking about distance is probably: How far is it? Here are two more common questions, and some expressions often used in the reply

Is it a long way?	No, just round the corner. / a couple of minutes' walk (= very near)
Is it very far?	No, not far. / No, about five or ten minutes' walk (= quite near)
Is it a long way?	Yeah quite a long way. / Yeah, over a mile
Is it very far?	Yes it's a long way. / Yes it's miles. / Yes it's too far to walk.

Note: We can use far in a question or negative but not in a positive statement on its own, e.g. we don't say 'it's far', we say 'it's a long way'. But we can say 'it's too far to walk'.

B Size and dimension

We can describe size using the nouns above or the adjectives formed from them, like this:
What's the length/width/height/depth/size of ...? or How long/wide/high/tall/deep/big is ...?

Note:

- We generally use tall to describe people, trees and buildings; and high to describe mountains. We also say high-rise buildings.
- Notice also that in the answer to these questions, an adjective follows the measurement:
The garden is about ten metres wide. (= The width is about ten metres.)

C Size in people and things

We use different words to describe the size of people and things:

a tall girl (≠ a short girl)

a fat person (≠ a thin person) See Unit 43 for more details.

a long book (= many pages) (≠ a short book)

a deep lake (= many metres) (≠ a shallow lake)

a thick book (≠ a thin book)

a wide road (≠ a narrow road)

Note We can use big or large to describe size in English, but not great. For English speaking people, great (informal) = fantastic. But we can use great before big to say that something is very big, e.g. I saw a great big dog in the park.

If you want to ask about size in clothes, you say: What size are you? or What size (shoes) do you take? If you don't know, then you need someone to measure you.

Exercises

92.1 Think about the room/place you are in now and answer these questions, using some of the expressions from the opposite page.

- 1 How far is it to the nearest shop?
- 2 How far is it to a bank?
- 3 Is it very far to the nearest bus stop?
- 4 Is it very far to a post office?
- 5 Is it a long way to the nearest swimming pool?
- 6 Is it a long way to the next big town?
- 7 How far is the nearest railway station?
- 8 Is it far to the centre of town?

If possible, ask someone else the same questions and compare your answers.

92.2 Write down eight different questions you could ask about the distance, size or dimensions of the things in the pictures.

92.3 Contradict the speaker in the sentences below. Look at the example first.

Example: A: Is it a long film?
B: No, it's quite short.

- 1 A: Is he a bit fat?
B: No, he's
- 2 A: The water's quite deep, isn't it?
B: No,
- 3 A: Their office is in quite a low building, isn't it?
B: No,
- 4 A: Is the road very wide at that point?
B: No,
- 5 A: It's a fairly boring place, isn't it?
B: No,
- 6 A: He's quite tall, isn't he?
B: No,
- 7 A: They only live in a small place, don't they?
B: No, it's

93 Shapes, colours and patterns

A Shapes

a square box, a round table, a pointed end, a rectangular field, an oval shape

Note: We can also form adjectives to describe shapes in this way:

The ball was egg-shaped; a heart-shaped wedding cake; a diamond-shaped bag

B Colours

You will already know most of the common colours. Here are some that are less common:

Mix black and white to form grey. Mix red and blue to form purple.

Mix green and blue to form turquoise. Pink is a colour between red and white.

Beige is a very light brown with some yellow in it.

C Shades of colour (= degrees and variation of colour)

She bought a dark green skirt.

He was wearing light blue jeans.

My new shirt is pale yellow.

Note: With some colours, we use pale rather than light, e.g. pale yellow, pale pink.

D Patterns (also called 'designs')

E Use of the suffix -ish

When we want to say that a shape is almost round or a colour nearly green, we can express this idea by adding the suffix -ish: a roundish face; a greenish tie; a yellowish colour.

Exercises

93.1 Describe these pictures using the correct noun and a suitable adjective.

93.2 What object is being described in each of these sentences?

- 1 It's got a point at one end and that's the end you use to write with.
- 2 It's greyish on the outside, pink on the inside, it swims and you eat it.
- 3 The shape is rectangular and it's usually green. There are lots of other lines on it, and people play on it.
- 4 It's a reddish-orange in colour, quite long and usually pointed at one end, and you eat it.
- 5 At certain times of the month it's completely round; at other times, it's closer to a semi-circle but not quite.
- 6 It can look pale blue, more often dark blue, and sometimes a greenish blue. It really depends where it is and whether the sun is shining on it.
- 7 It's oval-shaped, white or beige or light brown in colour, hard on the outside, and you eat it usually when it is cooked.
- 8 It is triangular, and in some countries you have to carry one in the boot of your car.
- 9 The bottom part is triangular, and at the top there is another bit in the shape of a semi-circle. You put things on the triangular part and hang them using the semi-circular part.
- 10 It has four sides and four right angles.

93.3 What are you wearing? Write down a detailed description of what you are wearing, including the exact colour of everything. If there is a colour or design you cannot describe, try to find it using a bilingual dictionary.

94 Partitives

There are many different words used to describe a particular quantity of something. Usually the word is joined to the noun it describes with 'of'.

A Containers (e.g. a bag) and contents (e.g. of shopping)

B With uncountable nouns

When we use uncountable nouns (e.g. advice), we sometimes want to talk about one of something. We cannot say ~~an advice~~ or ~~one advice~~, but we can use certain words to make these nouns singular: a sheet of paper (= one piece of paper) or a slice of bread (= one piece of bread). We can actually use the word piece with many nouns:

a piece of cake

a piece of wood

You can use piece with some abstract nouns, e.g. a piece of information, a piece of luck. The most common partitive is a bit, which is informal and used with many nouns. It usually means a small amount but can be quite general. It can be used with the examples above, and more: a bit of butter, a bit of time, etc.

C A pair of ...

Some nouns have two parts, e.g. trousers (two legs) and shoes (left and right). You can use a pair of to specify the number, e.g. a pair of skis, two pairs of shoes, three pairs of tights.

D Groups of things

Gang has a negative meaning. It suggests a group of young people who may cause trouble.

Exercises

- 94.1 Some of these containers do not look exactly the same as the ones on the opposite page, but the names are the same. Can you decide what the missing words are?

- 94.2 Contents come in different containers. Would you be surprised to see any of the following?

a glass of soup	a vase of coffee	a bowl of milk
a jug of wine	a tube of cigarettes	a tin of tomatoes
a jar of mustard	a bag of salt	a carton of toothpaste

- 94.3 Complete these sentences with a suitable noun.

- They gave her a big _____ of flowers for her birthday.
- They're looking for a _____ of youths who may be responsible for the damage.
- I eat about six _____ of ham and put them on a plate.
- They own a large _____ of land on the coast.

- I'm in a hurry but I've still got a bit/piece of time.
- We had a piece/bit of luck this morning: we won some money!
- Could I have a piece/bit/drop of milk in my coffee?

95 The senses

A The five basic senses

These are: sight, hearing, taste, touch and smell. For each one we use a basic verb, which can be followed by an adjective or noun in these constructions:

It looks terrible. (from what I could see)	It looks like a wedding cake.
He sounds German. (from what I heard)	It sounds like a good idea
It tastes strange. (from tasting it)	This tastes like bread
It feels soft. (from touching it)	It feels like a blanket.
It smells wonderful. (from smelling it)	This smells like garlic.

We can also use the verbs as nouns. These are very common:

I didn't like the look of the fish.	I really like the sound of church bells.
I don't like the taste of olives.	I hate the smell of petrol.

B See, look (at) and watch

See is the ability to use your eyes (the verb is not normally used in the progressive); look (at) often means to look carefully / pay attention to something that is not moving; and watch often means to pay attention to something that is moving:

I can't see a thing without my glasses. (= I'm not able to see / I am blind)
 I can't find my keys and I've looked (= searched / looked carefully) everywhere.
 I want the doctor to look at (= look carefully and examine) my knee.
 The police have been watching that man for weeks.
 I watched the match and then went for a drink with friends.
 Look (= look carefully) in the corner of my eye; you can see (= are able to see) the mark.
 He ran into me because he wasn't looking. (= paying attention; the speaker seems angry)
 He ran into me because he didn't see me. (= wasn't able to see me; the speaker is not angry)

Sometimes two verbs are possible in one context; sometimes only one:

I saw a great film last night. (= at the cinema; we cannot use watch here)
 I saw/watched a great programme last night. (= on TV; we can use either verb here)

C Hear and listen (to)

Hear means able to hear, listen (to) means to pay attention to things you hear:

I couldn't hear what she said. (= I was physically unable to hear)
 I can sometimes hear the trains from my bedroom. (= I am able to hear without trying)
 I don't know what she said because I wasn't listening. (= I wasn't paying attention)
 I often listen to the early evening news on the television. (= I make an effort to listen)
 I was listening to the radio when I heard a strange noise outside.

Sometimes it is possible to use hear (but not in the progressive form) to mean 'listen to':

I know he's dead – I heard it on the radio last night. (= I heard it when I was listening)

D Touch

Don't touch those wires – they're dangerous
 You have to press that button to start the machine.
 I don't feel safe up here. Could you hold my hand?

Please Do Not Feed
The Animals

and fall e.g. in front of a step)

FRAGILE (= be careful, this will break easily)

BEWARE OF PICKPOCKETS (= be careful, there are people here who will steal things from your bag or pocket without you knowing)

Exercises

- 96.1 Can you complete these notices and warnings in possible ways, without looking at the opposite page?

PLEASE QUEUE	BEWARE OF
MIND THE	MIND YOUR ..	SOLD
PLEASE DO NOT	OUT OF
NO	KEEP

- 96.2 Where would you expect to see these notices or warnings?

1	No vacancies	5	OUT OF ORDER
2	Beware of pickpockets	6	Sold out
3	Nothing to declare	7	FRAGILE
4	Please queue other side	8	Keep off the grass

- 96.4 Now write some different notices of your own. Think of six possible notices you could put in one of these places:

- a school
- a university
- a language school
- a place where people work, e.g. bank, factory, hospital

Where would you put these notices? If possible, do this activity with another person or show it to another person.

- 96.5 Look for other notices (in English or your first language). Can you understand the English notices? Can you translate the ones in your own language. Try to find six more notices in the next week.

97 Vague language

Vague means 'not clear or precise or exact'. For example, we can say:

I have a vague idea where it is. (= I know the general area but I don't know exactly where)

I have a vague memory of the game. (= I can remember bits of it but not very clearly)

In spoken English we often use words which are very vague.

A Thing(s)

- To refer to actions, ideas and facts.

The main thing (= fact) about John is that he likes everything to be organised

Hitting that young child was a terrible thing (= action) to do

- To refer to countable objects (often the speaker and listener know what the object is, or the speaker has forgotten the name of it at the moment of speaking):

What's that thing (bicycle) doing in the house?

Put those things (cups and saucers) in the cupboard.

- To refer to a general situation:

How are things at school? (= school in general)

Recent y, things (= life in general) have been going really well.

B Stuff

We generally use stuff (informal) to refer to uncountable nouns (or a group of countable nouns) when it is not necessary to be precise and give the exact name. Often the listener knows what the speaker is talking about.

Just leave that stuff (= different items of clothes) on the floor. I'll clear it up.

I never use that biological stuff (= washing powder) in my machine.

C (A) sort of ...

This is used to describe something when you are not being very exact or precise. Sometimes it is not possible to be exact, and sometimes you cannot find the exact word you want.

The walls are a sort of yellowy colour. (= not exactly yellow, but similar to yellow)

It's a sort of horror film. (= not exactly a horror film, but similar to one)

He gets ... uh sort of ... nervous when you mention the word 'exams'.

D A bit

It often means 'a little', but it is very common in spoken English, and sometimes it may be used more generally to mean a little or even quite a lot.

Could you speak up a bit (= a little)? I can't hear you very well.

I thought the hotel was a bit (= quite) expensive, actually.

E Approximately

These words have the same meaning but approximately is more formal than the others:

The train should arrive in approximately twenty minutes.

It's about three miles to the house.

There were roughly twenty people at the party.

We are expecting 100 guests, more or less.

Exercises

97.1 What could thing(s) and stuff refer to in these sentences?

- 1 I never wear that stuff; it's got such a strong smell.
- 2 This thing has got stuck in the lock.
- 3 I bought a couple of bottles when I was in Scotland. It's great stuff.
- 4 We don't need these things. We can eat the chicken with our fingers.
- 5 What's that white stuff called that you mix with water to make bread?
- 6 There was a great thing on television last night about elephants.
- 7 I couldn't get any more stuff in my suitcase.
- 8 It's a wonderful thing and keeps my young children occupied for ages.
- 9 I don't know why I bought that thing – it's too heavy for me to carry even when it's empty.
- 10 It's good stuff. My hair feels really soft, and it didn't cost a lot.

97.2 Add a few words and phrases from the opposite page to make this conversation less precise and more natural.

- A: How many people were at the conference?
 B: 400
- A: Did you enjoy it?
 B: Yes
- A: You don't seem very sure.
 B: Well, there were some good events, but it was too long.
- A: And did you go to John's talk?
 B: Naturally
- A: How did it go?
 B: Well he was nervous at the beginning, but he soon got more confident and I think it went really well.
- A: Did he have a big audience?
 B: 75
- A: That's good, isn't it?
 B: I think John was disappointed – he wanted at least a hundred.

97.3 Reply to each of these questions with a suitable 'vague' response.

- 1 A: Did you get everything you wanted?
 B: Yeah

 B: Yeah

97.4 Think about similar words and phrases that you use when speaking your own language. How many direct translations can you find for the words and phrases on the opposite page?

98 American English

A British English and American English

People in Britain and America understand each other perfectly most of the time, but there are differences in grammar, vocabulary, spelling and pronunciation. With vocabulary, the same word may have a different meaning, e.g. British chips are American french fries; and American chips are British crisps. Sometimes there are completely different words for the same thing, a lorry in British English is called a truck in American English.

B Vocabulary

Here are some important differences. The British English word comes first in each case. Most of the words are explained in other units. Use the index to help you.

Roads and transport

taxi / cab/taxi return (ticket) / round trip petrol / gas (gasoline) main road / highway motorway/freeway underground/subway subway/underpass pavement/sidewalk lorry/truck
car park / parking lot

Education

secondary school / high school term/semester (= periods in a college year)
university/college

Time

autumn/fall holiday/vacation
fortnight / two weeks

Homes

tap/faucet rubbish / garbage/trash dustbin/trashcan toilet/bathroom wardrobe/closet

Buildings

flat/apartment ground floor / first floor lift/elevator
toilet (gents/ladies) / bathroom (men's/ladies' room)

Food

Clothes

Note: Some American English words are now becoming more common in British English, e.g. movie (Br. = film); apartment (Br. = flat); semester (Br. = term). One special problem is that guys in American English can refer to men and/or women, but in British English it is only used to refer to men.

Exercises

98.1 Decide if the speaker is using British English or American English, and cross out the incorrect answer.

- 1 We've decided to take our vacation in the autumn/fall this year.
- 2 At my son's high school the new term/semester starts next week.
- 3 I never eat biscuits or sweets/candy.
- 4 Put that garbage in the dustbin/trashcan.
- 5 The trousers look nice with that waistcoat/vest.
- 6 The lorry/truck came past us on the highway.
- 7 My apartment is on the fourth floor but I'm afraid there's no lift/elevator.
- 8 The people next door are on holiday/vacation. They'll be away for a fortnight.
- 9 We left the car in the car park / parking lot and took the subway to the centre.
- 10 My trainers are in the wardrobe/closet.

98.2 Now complete this table.

British English	American English trousers	vacation
trainers	apartment
biscuits	high school
fortnight	garbage highway
	subway

98.3 This text includes some words used in American English. Underline them and write the British English words on the right-hand side.

- | | |
|---|---|
| It was getting near lunchtime and I needed some gas, so I left | 1 |
| the freeway and drove towards the nearest town. There was | 2 |
| a gas station just outside the town and I decided to stop and | 3 |
| have a look round. I put the car in a parking lot and took a | 4 |
| cab to the centre. It was midday and very hot, so I stopped at | 5 |
| a little cafe with tables on the sidewalk. I started talking to a | 6 |
| truck driver, who gave me a history of the town, and afterwards | 7 |
| he took me on a guided tour. It made a very nice break. | |

98.4 Here are some more American English words that are explained in different parts of this book. What is the British English equivalent?

- | | |
|---------------------------|------------------------|
| American English | British English |
| 1 stand/wait in line | |
| 2 drapes | |
| 3 collect call | |

Formal and informal English

Most English that you learn can be used in a wide range of situations. But you will also hear or see language that is formal or informal, and sometimes very formal or very informal. You need to be more careful with this language because it may not be suitable in certain situations. (They are marked fm! and infm! throughout the book.)

A Formal English

Formal English is more common in writing than speaking. It is found in notices, business letters, and legal English; but you will also hear examples in spoken English.

Cafe notice: Only food purchased (= bought) here may be eaten on the premises (= here).

Police statement in court: I apprehended (= stopped) the accused outside the supermarket.

Theatre announcement: The play will commence (= start) in two minutes.

Formal business situation: The meeting will resume (= start again) this afternoon at 2 p.m.

Lawyer: My client had a broken ankle. Thus (= so) he could not have driven the car.

Formal letter: I regret to inform you (= I am sorry to say) that we are unable to (= can't) grant (= give) you ...

Announcement: If you require (= need) further assistance (= more help), please contact Outside a pub: Parking for patrons (= customers) only.

B Informal English

In general, informal language is more common in spoken English than written English. Certain types of language are often informal:

- most uses of get are informal (See Unit 21 for more details)
- many phrasal verbs are informal (See Units 16 and 17 for more details)
- many idioms are informal (See Unit 18 for more details)

Here are some examples using words from above and other common informal words.

I had to go and pick up (= collect) the kids (= children) from school.

My flat is very handy for the shops. (= near the shops and very convenient)

I managed to fix up (= arrange/make) an appointment for 7.30.

I thought the book was terrific (= marvellous).

Most of the students are bright (= intelligent) but one or two are really thick (= stupid).

I offered him ten quid (= pounds) but the guy (= man) wasn't interested.

I reckon (= think) we'll get (= obtain) the money pretty (= quite) soon.

What's up? (= What's the matter?)

We must get in touch with them (= contact them) very soon.

Do you fancy going out? (= Would you like to go out?) Note the -ing form after fancy.

When you get (= reach/arrive) there, have a word with (= speak to) someone at reception.

I'm just going to the loo (= toilet).

C Slang

This is a form of very informal language. It includes words used by particular groups of people (e.g. some young people may refer to 'drugs' as dope), and also words which many people think are impolite and unacceptable in most situations. You should probably not use these words, but some of them are quite common. The word piss (= urinate / go to the toilet) for example, is often used metaphorically in these slang expressions:

piss off (= go away); he was pissed (= drunk); it's pissing with rain (= it is raining heavily)

Arrived on Sunday. The hotel is fantastic – we've got a huge room and the food is wonderful. It's been boiling every day so far, so we've spent most of the time on the beach, along with everyone else – it's absolutely packed. But the sea is actually freezing – that's because it's the Atlantic coast, I suppose. Tomorrow we're going to walk to a tiny seaside village about ten kilometres from here – I imagine I'll be really exhausted by the time we get back, but it does sound a fascinating place and I'm looking forward to it. 33.4 Possible answer

Dear Sir

I have just returned from a weekend break at The Royal Malvern Hotel and I am writing to express my dissatisfaction with the food and service provided in your restaurant

To begin with, there was very little variety in the food and sometimes no choice at all. Secondly, the service was very slow most of the time and we had to wait half an hour between courses. And finally, when we complained to the head waiter about these delays, he was very rude and the service did not improve

I sincerely hope that immediate action will be taken to improve this situation, and I shall expect a letter of apology and explanation for this very poor standard of service in a hotel with such a fine reputation.

Yours faithfully

Acknowledgements

I owe a great debt to Gillian Lazar for the extremely meticulous and valuable comments she has made on every single unit in the book, and also for her continued support and encouragement. Others have reported on parts of the manuscript, and for their valuable and supportive feedback I would also like to thank: Phillip N. Hewitt, Mike McCarthy, Geraldine Mark, Karl E. Schubmacher, Roy Sprenger, Liz Walter.

Much of the material has been piloted in different parts of the world. I would like to thank Mark Appleby (Barcelona, Spain), Helen Barnes (British Council, Barcelona, Spain), Frank Carney (British Council, Pozan, Poland), Cliff Parry (British Council, Athens, Greece), Chris Powell (International House, Pisa, Italy), Sean Power (ELCRA Bell S.A., Geneva, Switzerland), Pat Rich (British Council, Barcelona, Spain), Karen Williams (British Council, Barcelona, Spain). Sean Power and Mark Appleby have not only given me very useful feedback but also valuable suggestions for improving the material.

Geraldine Mark has not only commented on the material, she has also edited it, and with remarkable incisiveness, efficiency, and constant good humour. My thanks to her.

At Cambridge University Press, I would like to thank Jeanne McCarten for the inspiration behind this project; Nóirín Burke for all her work in organising reports and piloting; and Isabella Wigan for her work in collating the final stages of the project.

On the production side, I would like to thank Randell Harris and Nick Newton for their design, Peter Byatt for his illustrations, and the rest of the team at Cambridge University Press.

Finally my thanks, as always, to Ruth Gairns for her support, advice and encouragement.
